Work and career fall into place

Shannon O'Brien

• Weekly Horoscope

Aries (March 21 – April 20)
 You're anxious to establish personal and relationship momentum. Things are falling into place on work and career fronts. You're gaining financial confidence. There is change for the better in the air.

Taurus (April 21 – May 21)
 After weeks of pressure, things are falling into place. In your work sector, pressures are turning into opportunities. With things looking good on both the fun and work fronts, it seems that you really can have it all.

Gemini (May 22 – June 21)
 There is relief in the air, not only because stresses seem to be easing, but because you feel like you've found your old professional mojo, something that has been missing of late. You're back in the game. This is having a positive impact across the board.

Cancer (June 22 – July 22)
 You're finding balance. If life has been all work and responsibility and no play or your time has been taken up by other's needs that's all about to change next week. This week is for taking care of things to leave you free to enjoy yourself.

Leo (July 23 – Aug. 22)
 Create plans that will give you something to aim for. Get the ball rolling and see what's possible. Turn desires into plans.

Virgo (Aug. 23 – Sept. 23)
 You have finally achieved balance between the past and the future. This gives you a sense of hindsight and foresight that puts both the past and the future into context and evenly balanced. Financial pressures are easing and there is a lot of promise in the air, especially on the relationship front.

Libra (Sept. 24 – Oct. 23)
 A strong sense of professional and financial confidence makes it tempting to focus there, but that's premature. Your focus needs to be more on your personal and relationship situation, where there is something special going on.

Scorpio (Oct. 24 – Nov. 22)
 Don't worry about missing out on anything fun or romantic, for it's more likely to be a case of missing out on work opportunities if you aren't paying attention. A more playful time is coming anyway. Put everything you have into your work, in order to create the right momentum.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23 – Dec. 21)
 It's been a long time since conditions have looked this good. On the professional and financial fronts you're feeling most confident, ahead of a turnaround over the next few weeks. Even your social life is looking up, with some serendipitous moments or encounters likely.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 – Jan. 20)
 Find the right balance and right ongoing momentum. An all-consuming professional focus is no longer required, with a need to blow away some cobwebs from time to time. Getting stuck in a rut will see your creativity restrict and that fresh mental spark suffer.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 – Feb. 19)
 Having activity in both financial and income sectors created real challenges in the past, but now there are nothing but opportunities. Nurture optimism, even if at this stage there is nothing tangible to support that. The reality is that you're closer to a professional and financial turnaround than you realize.

Pisces (Feb. 20 – March 20)
 Ships you thought had sailed and doors you thought had closed for good are proving otherwise. Missed opportunities are a thing of the past. Small coincidences are working to put you in the right place at the right time or to trigger some important reminders. Meanwhile things are falling into place on the relationship, income and financial fronts.

Labor Day big at Fort Larned

Experience the excitement of a working frontier fort as Fort Larned National Historic Site holds Labor Day Weekend activities Saturday, Sunday and Monday.
 Living history demonstrations and activities will be held all three days from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Admission is free.
 Park staff and volunteers portray the living fort as it was in the 1860s and 1870s. Rifle and cannon demonstrations take place alongside working blacksmiths and bakers. Living-history interpreters throughout the site, including ladies in elaborate Victorian dresses and soldiers in historic uniforms.
 This year's event will also feature an exhibit by artist Rebecca Drach of Saint John, who specializes in oil painting and enjoys painting portraits and portrait scenes. The exhibit, supported by the Santa Fe Trail Creative Arts Guild, will be on display in the visitor center.

 Each day will feature demonstrations in the morning and talks in the air-conditioned visitor center in the afternoon.
 "Special events like this allow our visitors to connect with history on a higher level," said Superintendent Kevin McMurry. "Seeing the fort come to life can be a memorable experience for the whole family."
