Eberhart-Phillips said the best indicator of how the flu season may behave in Kansas is by looking to the Southern Hemisphere, which is approaching it springtime. There, he said, the flu has still had the same H1N1 strain and there are deaths, but the intensity of the virus is down.

In New Zealand, for example, areas that didn't have high outbreaks of the flu in 2009 are seeing more cases this year, suggesting that people who got "It's really different from last H1N1 last year are protected

Bird buyers can tweet for a discount

BRAINERD, Minn. (AP) - Tweeting the old-fashioned way can net you a steep discount on a feathered friend.

The Animal Humane Society says its five Minnesota shelters are housing too many birds. To encourage adoptions, the society says those who can imitate a bird call or are willing to sing or whistle a few lines of a bird-themed song will qualify to adopt a bird for just $1.

Officials say most of the cockatiels, parakeets and finches had been properly cared for but that their owners could no longer handle them. Many of the 279 birds were voluntarily surrendered. Workers have examined the birds, tested them for disease and prepared them for adoption.

The promotion applies at the group's locations in Buffalo, Coon Rapids, Golden Valley, St. Paul and Woodbury.

Cornell, who is Poland's daughter as well as mother of one of the younger prospective club members, stressed the value of 4-H.

"It's life skills for kids," she said. "You learn the basics of what you need to survive in life.'

All interested youths are urged to attend the first meeting. The group is also looking for volunteer
