Deaths

June L. Balls

June L. Balls, 92, Fowler, formerly of Colby, died Sunday, Sept. 5, 2010, at Fowler Residential Care.

She was born Aug. 14, 1918, on a homestead north of Stratton, Colo., the daughter of Fred and Mabel (Bowers) Doane. She graduated from Hays High School and attended Fort Hays State College.

On Nov. 27, 1938, she was baptized at St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Hays, where she married Fred Balls on Dec. 25, 1939.

A homemaker, she lived in Hays, Downs, Smith Center and Colby. She enjoyed dancing, sewing and traveling. She moved to Fowler to be near her daughter in recent years.

She was preceded in death by her husband on June 20, 2004, her parents and a brother, Dale Doane.

Survivors include two children, Jerry (Cathy) Balls, Blue Springs, Mo., and Donna (Bill) Norman, Fowler; four grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

A graveside inurnment service will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 9, 2010, at Beulah Cemetery. Visitation will be from 10 to 11 a.m. at the Kersensbrock Funeral Chapel.

The family suggests memorials to Ascension on the Prairie Episcopal Church in Colby or Fowler Residential Care, in care of the funeral chapel, 745 S. Country Club Drive, Colby, Kan., 67701.

Moritz William Nauer

Moritz William Nauer, 92, a Colby area farmer, died Saturday, Sept. 4, 2010, at the Colby Care Center.

He was born March 21, 1918, on a farm near Selden, the son of William and Katherine (Heppeler) Nauer.

In partnership with his father, he farmed and raised livestock on 1,400 acres near Selden. In 1942, he joined the Army, serving in the European theater until 1946. After his discharge, he continued to help on the family farm and worked as a mechanic in the surrounding area.

In 1963, he and his brother Albert moved to Thomas County, where they bought ground northwest of Colby, farming and raising livestock until his brother's death in 1971. He continued to farm and help area farmers until he moved to town in 2000.

Mr. Nauer was a member of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars and a regular at the singles' dances, where he helped set up and take tickets.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, Albert and John Nauer; and four sisters, Frances Cayton, Delma Moore, Celia Hurst and Delberta Mader.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, Sept. 10, 2010, at the Harrison Chapel in Colby, with Pastor James Mardock officiating. Inurnment will be later at the Selden Cemetery.

Friends will gather between 9 a.m. and the service Friday at the funeral home.

The family suggests memorials to the Senior Progress Center, in care of the funeral home, Box 634, Colby, Kan., 67701.

Hays Medical Center plans pain management programs

Hays Medical Center will offer two programs on acute pain management on Tuesday, Sept. 28.

A program for physicians will be held from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m. and a program for other health professionals from 9 a.m. to noon. Registration for the second session begins at 8:30 a.m.

Both will be held in Hadley Conference Room No. 2 at 2220 Canterbury, Hays. The programs are co-sponsored by the HaysMed Education Department and the University of Kansas Area Health Education Center-Northwest.

Melanie Simpson, a registered nurse who holds a doctorate and is pain management team coordinator for the University of Kansas Hospital in Kansas City, will speak.

Topics include the processes involved in the pain pathway, types of pain and their assessment and management, components of a comprehensive pain assessment, balanced analgesia and the use of equianalgesic dosing charts.

The first program is approved for one hour of continuing medical education credit.

The second is for registered and licensed nurses, nurse practitioners, respiratory therapists, social workers, physical and occupational therapists and other health professionals. It offers three hours of continuing education credit.

The fee for the physician program is $10. Fees for the second program are $15 for employees and $30 for others.

To register, call (800) 248-0073, extension 5500, or e-mail dmclar-en@haysmed.com.

Help soldiers, give old cell phones

The Royal Neighbors are collecting used cell phones to be distributed to our soldiers overseas. A collection box has been set up at the Red Barn for drop off.

During the week, the county swept the paved streets in preparation for oiling and sanding them before winter weather arrives. Hopefully, the warm temperatures predicted this week will help embed the sand into the hot asphalt.

The first bingo event of the season will be Saturday at the Red Barn. All adults are welcome to attend. When you get a "bingo," you win either a piece of fruit or a candy bar.

A happy birthday to everyone celebrating this month: John Ray Gould on Friday; Patty Purcell, Saturday; Joan Todd, Friday, Sept. 17; Dick Sanford, Tuesday, 21; and Delores Dible and Gary Delzeit, Wednesday, 22.

first football home game will be at 7 p.m. Friday against Dighton. For the half-time entertainment, the Golden Plains cheerleaders and future cheerleaders who attended cheer camp will perform.

Copies of the Golden Plains 2010 Yearbook are available for purchase. Call the high school at 687-3265.

An extra day for the weekend only added another day of work around the Allison household, for me anyway. I hope there were some who were able to enjoy the weekend doing what families need to be doing together, and that is enjoying spending time with each other with smiles and laughter.

Museum to offer 'Women in Denim'

Doris Johnson of Abilene will recall days of the past at the "Women in Denim" program from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 22, at the Prairie Museum of Art and History in Colby.

Mrs. Johnson is the author of the book "Gutsy Women," which exhibits her enthusiasm and desire to help children, especially girls, become all they can.

A program on women's health will be given from 10:15 to 11 a.m., with lunch at noon catered by Bob Amos and entertainment by the "Wild Rose Poet," Helene Landenberger of St. Francis.

A program on composting begins at 1 p.m., with a farm safety presentation to follow. A tour of music is scheduled from 2:25 to 3 p.m.

Cost is $30 and deadline to register is Saturday, Sept. 11. Send reservations to Debbie Potter, 915 E. Walnut St., Colby, Kan, 67701. There is a limit of 50 women.

The program is sponsored by the Northwest Kansas Conservation and Environmental Alliance, representing conservation district managers from Cheyenne, Decatur, Gove, Logan, Rawlins, Sherman, Thomas and Wallace counties, who work together to provide educational programs their districts.

Corrections

A story, "County talks about pay for workers," in the Thursday, Sept. 2, issue of the Colby Free Press misspelled Deputy County Treasurer Layn Bruggeman's name. She was incorrectly listed as assistant county treasurer. These were reporting errors.
