Step back and plan before committing

• Weekly Horoscope

Aries (March 21 – April 20) A huge energy shift defuses pressure and brings you a new sense of calm. Step back and spend more time at the drawing board, before fully committing to the future.

Taurus (April 21 – May 21) Work pressures defuse, giving you a chance to create more balance in your life. If stresses have had you focused on keeping your head above water, a lighter mood comes into play. Momentum on the job front will continue; your personal life is mounting a comeback.

Gemini (May 22 – June 21) A major turnaround comes on the professional front. When the tide turns it really turns, yet as dramatic as the professional shift is, you're going to find it easy to maintain balance. That may not have been the case in the past.

Cancer (June 22 – July 22) You're finding the balance that was a challenge. If life has been all work or your time has been taken by other's needs that's about to change. This week is for taking care of those things that will leave you free to enjoy yourself more.

Leo (July 23 – Aug. 22) You're on the brink of a turnaround in work and income. Good things are happening at home. This is also a good week for communications, especially in relationships. If you're going to take time off make it earlier in the week.

Virgo (Aug. 23 – Sept. 23) There is a lot of financial urgency in the first half of the week. Venus' move into your communication sector while Jupiter returns to your relationship sector changes the focus, while allowing you to retain your financial edge.

Libra (Sept. 24 – Oct. 23) A shift in focus relieves pressure while opening new doors on work and income fronts. You're experiencing an internal shift in attitude. Personal or relationship pressure eases, while things start falling into place on the job.

Scorpio (Oct. 24 – Nov. 22) There will be a dramatic shift come Thursday. Front load your week as far as professional objectives are concerned, because if you put things off you'll have missed the boat. Gain job momentum early you can maintain. Thursday that a more playful mood kicks in.

Sagittarius (Nov. 23 – Dec. 21) Just as you approach a turnaround on the career and income fronts, old doors open on the home front. In the past this would have created a problem, but now you find balance. There are some second chances on the career, income, home and romantic fronts.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 – Jan. 20) A professional focus starts to ease back. Conflict between home and career created pressure, yet it's given you better balance and raised the bar on the professional front. Meanwhile, let your hair down and focus on your personal life, which may have suffered of late.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 – Feb. 19) A lot of things come into focus, especially on the professional and financial fronts. This time around the financial challenges of the past are nowhere to be seen. The theme that is running throughout the week is one of adventure, with many options.

Pisces (Feb. 20 – March 20) This week the seemingly impossible happens. Thursday Jupiter, planet of luck, returns to your sign and aligns with Uranus, planet of surprise and synchronicity. Considering that the last time that Jupiter made a double dip visit to your sign was in 1950 and the last time that Jupiter and Uranus aligned in your sign was during the Dark Ages, in 1334, this really is your lucky week. No advantage is a good one unless it's used. This opens the door to second chances.
