If you like Santas you won't want to miss the Santa theme the Libby Curry home, 1290 E. Eighth St.

Over 400 Santas will greet visitors from the walkway, up to the various forms, and even in picture front door to every room in the puzzles she has put together, glued house, with special displays in the and framed lower level.

Curry said when she was asked to have her home on the tour, she born in Slovakia, raised in Gerwas told she needed to share her collection.

"I love sharing my Santas with She began her career as a girl by everyone," she added, "and this a good opportunity to do that."

Curry said she considers herself a "serious collector" who actually didn't intend to be. She said she Prizm, Inc., a Wamego manufachappened to be in a shop in Stockton that had an old-fashioned Santa. She said when she looked at it, the Santa just gave her a good feeling. It was then, she added, that the thought came to her that she might just like to collect special figurines of Santa. She collected a few for a while, and then she said. "I do store all the boxes, the hobby sort of exploded. Many have been received as gifts, she added.
