

High Atmosphere (above), a bluegrass and gospel band from Colorado Springs, performed at Pickin' on the Plains in 2010. Also playing last year were the Martins (left), a family band complete with their own clog dancer, who performed in time with the music. The festival also attracts amateur musicians (below) who get the chance to jam between acts and at the jam session Thursday night after the potluck dinner.

ANDY HEINTZ/Colby Free Press

Come Enjoy the 16th Annual Bluegrass Festival!

Western Plains Energy, LLC

Fueling the Future

3022 Ct. Rd. 18 • Oakley KS • 785-672-8810