

Among the various livestock and animal competitions at the fair are swine showmanship (above) and small pets (right). Fair week also holds other attractions such as the carnival (below, left) and the fair parade (below, right), which often attracts rodeo royalty from other counties, as well as from Thomas County.

