"We got 50 counties, and I think about half of them are in Ralph Ostmeyer's district," he joked.

Not quite, but all 18 counties in Ostmeyer's district are covered. Out of northwest Kansas, only Ellis county is not. Ostmeyer said he was encouraged to see how many people turned out. The bill has merit, he said, and people already are interested.

with rural counties to give people a reason to take a look at Kansas.

In addition to the tax incentive, Brownback said, advances in technology can help rural areas bring in people or keep them from moving away.

'Many jobs, you can do from anywhere now," he said.

Brownback pointed to several people in the crowd from Northwest Tech, which has partnered with Apple to loan iPads to every student and staff member. "Google came to Kansas City; Apple came to

Senior Parents & Homeschoolers Hurry in!!

Deadline is April 15, 2011!!!

The Colby Free Press is now planning the Senior Graduation Tab and will be giving parents a chance to put a baby picture in along with a short message from the family for a small fee.

We will automatically feature your student's picture and information, but this will be your chance to put in a baby picture to show how much your senior has really changed over the years!

Call Andrea or Kathryn, at 462-3963 for more information or stop by the office at 155 W. Fifth in Colby.
