Prom, party a success

By Judy Rogers

Golden Plains High School

Students from Golden Plains enjoyed a post-prom party put on by the Golden Plains Booster Club following the 2011 Junior Senior Prom. This annual event was held in the high school gym. This was the first year for quite a while that the after prom party was held at the school.

Students were provided with a variety of activities and games including the Obstacle Course and King of the Mountain inflatable games. In keeping with the "Chances Are..." prom theme, there was a blackjack table, a craps table, and a Plinko game. There were also a variety of board games and video games. Each participant received a T-shirt with the theme on it and students' names were drawn throughout the night for door prizes. At the end of the evening, the names of one senior boy and one senior girl were drawn for a $100 gift card. Casey Gould and Dani Weed were the lucky winners.

The party provided student with safe, supervised alcohol and drug-free entertainment following the prom. This was possible due to the volunteers and those who made contributions.

JUDY ROGERS/Golden Plains High School Aaron Emigih and McKayla Albertson, Prom King and Queen, shared a dance.

Jackie Armstrong slid down the inflatable obstacle course at the after prom party.
