Golden Plains graduate named Garden City college ambassador

Rilee Spresser of Gem has been chosen as ball all four years of high school and partici- including food drives, road and park cleanup, one of three incoming students to receive Gar- pated in weightlifting, competing in state powden City Community College's most presti- er lifting as a senior. gious scholarship, the Ambassador Award, for the upcoming school year.

He is a Golden Plains High School graduate with a grade average of 3.786 on a 4.0 scale. He was president of his senior class and has credits from Colby Community College in psychology, composition, college algebra and speech.

"People at GCCC always talk about the fact that once you become a 'Buster you are a 'Buster for life," Spresser said. "Personally, I agree with that 100 percent, because I've had numerous friends and relatives go to college at GCCC and they all tell me how much I'll love it there.'

Involved in Student Leadership Thomas County, he is in National Honor Society and participated in the gifted-talented program.

He was a student council representative, was elected homecoming king and was a member of the school choir.

Spresser played varsity basketball and foot- number of church and community activities,

He was selected for the eight-man all star football game in his league; earned all state honorable mention as a quarterback his senior year; became Western Kansas Liberty League first team punter/kicker as a senior, as well as second team quarterback and defensive back the same year. He earned various other recognition in football as an underclassman.

In league basketball, he earned first team all league honors as a sophomore. In track, he received all league honors as a sophomore; became all-league triple and long jump champion in 2009, in addition to setting the Golden Plains long jump record the same year, and becoming the Class 1A triple jump state champion as a sophomore. He was seventh overall in high and long jumps in state Class 1A track meet competition, as well as 2010 league shot put champion.

Spresser has been actively involved in a fair concessions and volunteering with elementary and middle school activities.

He has held jobs with Starlight Painting, Farm Implement and Supply and Hi-Plains

Selection as an Ambassador Scholar is based on academic achievement, school and community service and other criteria. Each applicant must be recommended by school officials, go through a personal interview and write an application essay.

Ambassadors serve as a sounding board for the college administration, as hosts for campus visitors, as speakers at special events, assist with Endowment Association activities, and represent the college in a number of other

Each year by tradition, two to three incoming freshman Ambassadors join one to two returning sophomore Ambassador Scholars.

"We have the difficult task of choosing from an elite group of students," said Lynn Dunford, member of the Endowment Association board

Senior Progress Center

Friday.

Activities for the week: Monday: 10:30 a.m. shuffle board. Tuesday: 10 a.m. exercise; 10:30 a.m. pinochle game. Wednesday: 11 a.m. Sno-cones. Thursday: 10 a.m. exercise; 10:30 a.m. Wii game. Friday: 10 a.m. exercise; 11 a.m. Fathers' Day celebration.

Menus for the week: Monday: lasagna, mixed vegetables, peaches, garlic bread, pudding. Tuesday: chef's salad, tropical fruit, crackers, bar cookie. Wednesday: turkey slice, sweet potatoes, corn, Come celebrate with the fathers dinner roll, pineapple. Thursday: at the Senior Progress Center on roast beef, mashed potatoes and gravy, mixed fruit, birthday cake. Friday: salmon patty, Italian pasta salad, plums, cook's choice complement.

The Thomas County Nutrition Center invites anyone 60 and older and guests to lunch Monday through Friday at the senior center. Home delivery is available, as is pick-up service. A contribution of $3 per meal is suggested for seniors, $5.25 for others. For anyone under 60, home delivery is $5.75.

Make reservations at (784) 460-2901 by noon the day before.

Oil painting class at Logan museum to focus on photos

The Dane G. Hansen Memo- land. For many years he has made rial Museum will hold a painting workshop with David Vollbracht teaching on the use of photography as a reference material Wednesday through Saturday, July 13 through 16. Special emphasis will be placed on the limitations of photography and how to use it as a point of reference instead of

The four-day class will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day at the Dane G. Hansen Museum, 110 W. Main in Logan. Cost is $150, with discounts for museum members.

Design, color, values and composition will be explored as well as the more illusive but important elements of mood, passion and attitude that can make a good painting better and a better painting

Intermediate and advanced artists may call (785) 689-4846 for information or to register.

Vollbracht is a representational landscape painter of the west. His work reflects the quality of light, Horse nature and spirit drawn from the trips to various parts of the west to gather reference material for realistic impressions created primarily in oil. Emphasizing the beauty and importance of the natural landscape in his compositions, he is intrigued by the patterns and shapes in nature and concentrates on the effects of light on these ele-

Vollbracht lives in Medicine Lodge and has a degree in art from Fort Hays State University. He has recently received signature membership to Oil Painters of His work has been shown at the Mountain Oyster Club Show, Tucson, Ariz.; a one man show at the Wichita Center for the Arts; the National Miniature Show, La Luz, N.M.; National Oil Painters of America exhibitions and Rocky Mountain Plein Air Show, Winter Park, Colo.

He has art work in the Elkhorn Art Gallery, Winter Park and Paint Gallery, Breckenridge, Report says raising child more costly has released its annual report, and state governments in deter-"Expenditures on Children by mining child support guidelines Families," finding that a middle- and foster care payments. It is income family with a child born based on data from the federal in 2010 can expect to spend about government's Consumer Expen-$226,920 ($286,860 with inflation diture Survey. For the year 2010, factored in) for food, shelter, and other necessities to raise that child over the next 17 years. This represents a two percent increase from Expenses for transportation, care saw the largest percentage from 2009. There were very small changes in housing, food, clothing, and miscellaneous expenses on a child since 2009.

The report, issued annually $226,920; and a family earning most embarrassing father is no more.

including a wedding dress.

Over the course of the 180-day school year, Dale

Price waved at the school bus carrying his 16-year-old son, Rain, while wearing something different ev-

He started out by donning a San Diego Chargers helmet and jersey, an Anakin Skywalker helmet, and swim trunks and a snorkel mask, the Daily Herald of Provo and Deseret News of Salt Lake City reported.

the Little Mermaid, the scarecrow from the Wizard of Oz, Princess Leia, Nacho Libre and Santa Claus.

Among others, he later dressed up as Elvis, Batgirl, ery morning outside their American Fork home.

The Department of Agriculture since 1960, is a resource to courts more than $99,730 can expect to per child annual child-rearing expenses for a middle-income, twoparent family range from $11,880 to $13,830, depending on the age of the child.

The report notes that famchild care, education, and health ily income affects child rearing costs. A family earning less than increases related to child rearing $57,600 per year can expect to spend $163,440 on a child from birth through high school. Parents with an income between $57,600 and $99,730 can expect to spend

Father spends school year waving at son's bus

He wore spandex, pleather, feathers, wigs, flips flops, sooner than I did. It wasn't their dad dressing up like Dale Price said it took a lot of effort to keep up, photos of her husband's costumes at waveatthebus.

AMERICAN FORK, Utah (AP) – The world's cared about him.

suits, boots, fur, Army fatigues and several dresses, a fool," the son added.

but he did it to have fun and show his son he really blogspot.com.

spend $377,040.

For middle-income families, housing costs are the single largest expenditure, averaging 31 percent. Child care and education and food were the next two largest expenses, accounting for 17 and 16 percent of their total expenditure. These estimates do not include costs associated with pregnancy or the cost of education beyond high school.

Expenses are highest for families living in the urban Northeast, followed by the urban West and urban Midwest. Families living in the urban South and rural areas have the lowest child-rearing ex-

"I hope this lives with him for the rest of his life," the father told the Deseret News. "He can use it against his kids and tell them, 'If you think you are embarrassed by me, you should have seen your year, said he eventually became used to the idea.

Rain Price, who just completed his sophomore

"The first day of high school I have my dad wav-

"Everybody else on the bus learned to like it a lot

His mother, Rochelle Price, started a blog with ing at the bus. It was really embarrassing." he told the Daily Herald. "But the last couple of months it was issued, a middle-income family could have expected to spend $25,230 ($185,856 in 2010 dollars) to raise a child through age seventeen. Housing was the largest expense both then and now. Health care expenses on a child doubled as a percentage of total child-rearing costs. In addition, some current-day costs, such as child care, were negligible in 1960.

Expenses per child decrease as a family has more children. Families with three or more children spend 22 percent less per child than families with two children.

The full report, Expenditures on Children by Families (2010), is available on the web at nwww. cnpp.usda.gov.

On the Beat

COLBY POLICE Wednesday

12:35 a.m. – Walk-through at Walmart.

2:55 a.m. - Caller reported incident.

7:05 a.m. – Assisted ambulance

2:25 p.m. – Animal complaint: report filed on incident.

3:10 p.m. – Dog at large at 150

E. Ash turned over to owner.

7:38 p.m. – Keys locked inside vehicle. Contacted locksmith; provided assistance.

10:02 p.m. – Loud music comto subject; music turned down.

10:24 p.m. – Loud music complaint again at 770 Dylan Drive. Last warning given.

THOMAS COUNTY SHERIFF Wednesday

6:30 a.m. - Late entry: booked Mark Dulany at 8:51 p.m. Tues-rest: Shiloh Rae Crandall arrested in Ray County, Mo.

9:24 a.m. – National Crime Information Center hit/warrant Colby Fertilizer. arrest: John Harold Crandall ar-plaint at 770 Dylan Drive. Spoke rested in Ray County, Mo.

9:30 a.m. - Welfare check on employee

12:28 p.m. – Caller reported wheel smoking on train eastbound just west of Brewster. Police contacted Kyle Railroad.

4:58 p.m. - Large piece of rubber/metal in roadway in 3000 block of U.S. 83. Contacted Mc-Carty Dairy to see if it was theirs. 9:24 a.m. - National Crime In- Employee of dairy called at 5:19 4:28 p.m. - Provided direc- formation Center hit/warrant ar- and advised they had removed it from roadway

6:30 p.m. – Traveler's aid. 11:24 p.m. – Security check at

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

has turned into more entertainment."

To have your ad placed in the Business Directory call Andrea, Kathryn or Shannon today at 462-3963.

Give it a try!

See what the Business Directory can do for you!

ROOFMASTERS

Serving Colby for over 30 YEARS!

425 East Hill, Colby, KS

785-462-6642

We make insurance

Colby, KS (785) 462-3388

policy for your home, vehicles and other possessions deductible for all covered possessions damaged in a single occurrence company with a reputation of honesty and fair-dealing FARM BUREAU FINANCIAL SERVICES

Insurance • Investments

Securities & services offered through EquiTrust Marketing Ser 50266, 877/860-2904, Member SIPC. Farm Bureau Property &

NEW SYSTEM

PROFESSIONAL WINDOW CLEANING

(800) 611-6735 www.MyWindowCleaner.net

and customer service contact me!

Dennis R. Tubbs/Agent

Serving Colby since 1992!

Commercial • Residential • Free Estimates

Licensed Wood Shingles Bonded IR Shingles Insured Stone Coated Steel Metal Panels FREE ESTIMATES

RESIDENTIAL

Heritage Shingles

Elastomeric Coating

COMMERCIAL

EPDM Rubber

White TPO Single Ply

Modified Systems

Built up Systems

WHO YA GONNA CALL?

Meadow Lake Restaurant & Lounge

Golf season is here. Come join in the fun at our new low season prices!

Meadowlake Golf Course, Restaurant and Lounge are public facilities, not private - everyone welcome.

Restaurant and Lounge are open Monday - Saturday Prime Rib, Salad Bar and Desert Special every Saturday night

1085 E Golf Club Rd. • Colby, KS

ounty INSURANCE AGENCY Serving NW Kansas for over 100 years.

Representing many companies to provide all your insurance needs:

- Home, Auto, Boat, Motorcycle, RV Farm and Crop Insurance
- Commercial Property, Automobiles
- General Liability, Workers Compensation • Inland Marine, Builders Risk
- Auto Service Shops • Body Shop and Collision Repair Contractors
- Restaurants Salons and Day Spas
- Strip Malls, Condominiums • Churches, Schools, Day Care Centers

P.O. Box 506 • 490 N. Franklin Ph: 785-462-3939 • Fax: 785-462-3752 dtubbs@thomascountyins.com • www.thomascountyins.com

Bankruptcy Questions?

200 W 13th - Hays, KS

We are a debt relief agency. We help people file for bankruptcy relief under the Bankruptcy Code.

NEED EXTRA MONEY?

Be a Newspaper Carrier!

