Congress says no shutdown ımmınent

WASHINGTON (AP) - Shifting from confrontation to cooperation, congressional leaders expressed optimism Thursday that agreement was near on extending this year's payroll tax cut, renewing unemployment benefits and averting a federal shutdown. "We can extend payroll tax relief for American workers and create new jobs and keep the govern-

and snow

The Commissioners approved a payment of $5,400, and agreed to pay the rest upon completion of the project.

• A bill for $72,161 was approved to pay for digital mapping services and aerial photography done for use by the appraiser's office and emergency management. Emergency management director Susan McMahan said the photos were reviewed by a third party to ensure quality, who said the photos are the best they've seen from that company. McMahan was requested to get their approval in writing.

The expense will be entirely reimbursed from the state as part of a grant that was received for the project.

• A $1,000 donation to the transportation van was approved from the sheriff's department

· Certified public accountant Brian Staats from Adams, Brown, Beran and Ball presented an audit proposal for consideration. Commissioners agreed on a three-year timeline to better fall in line with the reviews that are only required every three years. The county will encumber one year of fees at a time, rather than paying three year's worth all at once.

• Angie Gaede from the health department presented follow-up information to the commissioners regarding the department's upgrade to electronic health records. An agreement with surrounding counties will be explored to cut back on expenses. Gaede was asked to find a sample of an inter-local agreement and to give a copy of the contract to attorney Kevin Berens for review.

• Salary raises for county employees were discussed for 2012. An idea was proposed to allow department heads the ability to distribute raises amongst the employees in their office. Department head raises will be determined by the commissioners. Employees are encouraged to attend next week's meeting to give their feedback.

· The Commissioners discussed Rural Fire District No. 5 as it relates to Sherman County, rural parts of Thomas County and Brewster. It was discovered that Brewster may not be paying for fire protection since there is no line item in the city budget. It could be paid for under the general fund, but a call the city government went unanswered. Eighty-five percent of the district's people are located within the city of Brewster.

There has also been a long-standing agreement for Thomas County to pay Sherman County $5,000 a year for services in the fire district. Sherman county wants to rescind it as they are wanting to improve their ratings and service to their residents.

More information will be gathered and discussion will be continued at a later date.

• The monthly emergency medical services report was given: local runs this year to date have decreased 12 percent from last year, from 539 in 2010 to 473 in 2011; emergency runs have increased this year to date from 250 runs in 2010 to 313 in 2011, a 25 percent increase; nonemergency runs have increased 33 percent, from 175 in 2010 to 233 in 2011; trauma runs also increased from 294 to 305; and the total number of patients has increased 14 percent from 420 in 2010 to 480 patients to date for 2011.

Some Iraqis celebrated the exit of what they called American occupiers, neither invited not welcome in a proud country.

"The American ceremony represents the failure of the U.S. occupation of Iraq due to the great resistance of the Iraqi people," said lawmaker Amir al-Kinani, a member of the political coalition loyal to anti-American cleric Muqtada al-Sadr.

Others said that while grateful for U.S. help ousting Saddam, the war went on too long. A majority of Americans would agree, according to opinion polls.

The low-key nature of the ceremony stood in sharp contrast to the high octane start of ment running and, frankly, we can an airstrike in southern Baghdad drop from the roughly 500 miliwhere Saddam was believed to tary installations and as many as be hiding. U.S. and allied ground forces then stormed across the featureless Kuwaiti desert, accompanied by reporters, photographers and television crews embedded with the troops. Austin led the massive logistical challenge of shuttering hundreds of bases and combat outposts, and methodically moving more than 50,000 U.S. troops and their equipment out of Iraq over the last year – while still conducting training, security assistance and counterterrorism battles.

The war "tested our military's strength and our ability to adapt and evolve," he said, noting the development of the new counterinsurgency doctrine.

As of Thursday, there were the war, which began before two U.S. bases and about 4,000 dawn on March 20, 2003, with U.S. troops in Iraq - a dramatic Despite President Barack Obama's earlier contention that all American troops would be home for Christmas, at least 4,000 forces will remain in Kuwait for some months. The troops will be able to help finalize the move out of Iraq, but could also be used as a quick reaction force if needed.

Despite the war's toll and unpopularity, Panetta said earlier expect there will be no movethis week, it "has not been in ment on that issue until somevain."
