

Junior Princess Contestants

Lizzie Cornell

Lizzie Cornell is the 10-year-old daughter of Kenneth and Carmen Cornell of Gem. She also attends Colby Grade School.

“It is a good experience with my horse,” she said of the competition, “to have the experience of going to other county rodeos and promoting our county rodeo. Also to show that you don’t have to grow up in the country or this culture to follow a dream. Not to mention I just think it will be fun.”

Emeline Hutton is the 10-year-old daughter of Ed and Jana Hutton of Brewster. She attends Colby Grade School.

“I would like to be the Thomas County Junior Princess because I would really like to get into the sport of rodeo,” she said, “and I have a very good barrel horse. I really like goat tying and I’m going to try to get a good goat horse. I would really like to go around traveling and representing Thomas County and meeting new people because I get along with people really easy and I like making new friends. I would like to share my enthusiasm for rodeo and tell people how great it is to live in Thomas County.”
