

Easter eggs draw Rexford kids

There are little shoots of green in my garden. I know I'll have to cover a few things later this month, but I'm excited to see the beginnings of a garden.

Toddlers through third graders all seemed to have a great time at the Lion's Club Easter egg hunt Saturday afternoon at the park.

The Gideons held their monthly meeting at Shepherd's Staff on Saturday.

Rexford Community Church held a baptism service Sunday morning, followed by a carry-in brunch and regular Sunday morning service. Four people were baptized. During the Sunday service a small choir of local people performed, then Margaret AraSmith and Jim Graham were welcomed as new members of the church.

This weekend the church will be holding a missions conference, and all members of the community are invited. The conference will kick off with a youth pizza party at 6:30 Friday night. Then at 8 a.m. Saturday morning the men of the church will cook breakfast for anyone who would like to attend. There will be a supper Saturday evening, then regular Sunday School and church service Sunday morning, followed by a fellowship dinner.

The guest missionaries this year are Geoff and Tina Casteel, who serve with Pioneers among the Kuechua in Peru, and Rachael Walker, who serves with Global Partners in China. Guests will share at each of the events.

Don't forget you can head over to the Red Barn to play bingo on Saturday night.

That's it for news this week. As always, you can leave your news items in the jar by the door at the Red Barn, call them in to me at (785) 687-2076, or e-mail griffithsgang@gmail.com.

Have a great week.
