Donald W. Bouts

Donald W. Bouts, 86, Colby, died Tuesday, May 22, 2012, at the Deseret Health Care Center in Colby.

He was born Aug. 22, 1925, in Jennings, the son of Anton and Leona Bouts. He attended country schools. Graduating from Jennings High School in 1942, he joined his parents, who had moved to Los Angeles, and waited for his 18th birthday, when he enlisted in the Army Air Corps. While in the military, he went to England from the base at Kearney, Neb., and served as a tail gunner on a B-17.

Following the war, he married Barbara Henigar on Oct. 18, 1947, in Los Angeles. They moved to the family farm south of Jennings, where they farmed for five years. In 1954, they moved to Denver, where he worked at the United Airlines training center for 36 years, until retiring as a simulator trainer instructor in 1990. In 2002 they moved to Colby.

His parents preceded him in death.

Survivors include his wife, Colby; a son, Will (Grace) Bouts, Oberlin; two daughters, Cathy Bouts, Oberlin; and Judy (Jeff) Burns, Centennial, Colo.; one brother; four sisters; and four grandsons.

No services were planned. Memorials may be sent to the family.

Shakespeare Club

Shakespeare Club met at the home of Amie Kendrick on March 27 with six members and two guests present. Kendrick called the meeting to order with the club collect and flag salute.

Mark Kendrick, Kansas Bureau of Investigation officer, gave the program. He updated the group regarding his cases and noted statistics for Western Kansas. Members had many questions for Mark. He continued to reflect on his work as Amy Kendrick served refreshments.

On May 18, the club held its final meeting of the season at the home of Sheila Frahm for a salad luncheon. Nine members and one guest were present.

Following the meal, Frahm spoke about her elephant collection, specifically the newest addition to the collection. This is a framed picture of an elephant which was painted by an elephant and sent to Frahm by nephew Jon Frahm, who lives in Thailand.

The afternoon concluded with the annual review of the club scrapbook and dessert.

The next meeting will be Friday, Sept. 21.

Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H Club

The Brewster Prairie Gem 4-H Club met May 14 at Hunter Hall. Acting President Ben Baird called the meeting to order. Austin Burkholder led the flag salute. Hunter House and Burkholder, song leaders, led the ABC Song. Acting Secretary Emeline Hutton reported 16 members answered the roll call of an ocean, sea, or lake to visit. New member Evan Holz and his parents were introduced.

Parent leaders Kathy Baird and Michelle Werth gave reports and reminded members that in June the club meeting time changes to 8 p.m. 4-H Council member Ben Baird gave a report of the last council meeting. Hutton, reporter, said last month's meeting report was published on April 19 in the Colby Free Press.

Hutton, rabies clinic chair, told the club the annual rabies vaccination clinic was a success, with 54 dogs and cats vaccinated. Seven members assisted with the clinic.

The program included project talks by Alicia Barrie on acrylic painting and Ashley Barrie on her instrumental solo at 4-H Club Days. Hunter House had a safety tip on drinking and driving. Amber Barrie gave a demonstration on how to braid hair with the help of Kelly Palmgren. Kasey Hoyt shared a quote by Thomas Edison. Recreation was a game of Ninja led by Austin Burkholder and Amber Barrie.

President Kasey Hoyt read announcements. Vice-President Michael Schmidt read the program for the next meeting, which will be at 8 p.m. Monday, June 11. Michael Schmidt led the 4-H pledge. Hosts were the Palmgren and Hutton families.

Revealing visit to Nuremburg shows human evil and hope in God churches, two Lutheran and one Roman Catholic, all of which suffered major damage in the bombing of Nuremburg by the Allies at the end of the war.

One church we visited was St. Sebald Church. The building of the church began in 1230. Until the Protestant Reformation it was a Roman Catholic Church, but during the Reformation it became a Lutheran Church, as it remains. Throughout the church's sanctuary was a display of photos showing a bit of the church's history during World War II. First shown was a Nazi parade with the church spires in the background, then several photos of the church in ruins after the allied bombing of Nuremburg, and finally the process of rebuilding the church after the war.

Another church, Liebfrauenkirche (Church of Our Lady) offered a different kind of memorial to both its past and future hopes. It stands in the central market place in Nuremburg on the place of an old synagogue. The synagogue
