

Congressman accepting internship applications

Congressman Tim Huelskamp is now accepting applications from college-aged young adults seeking internships in his Washington, D.C. office as well as in his Kansas offices in Dodge City, Hutchinson, Salina and Manhattan. The deadline for applications is Friday, March 15.

"So much of what happens in Washington today has consequences for the next generation, and so it is valuable for young people to have exposure to Congress and the lawmaking process," Huelskamp said. "I encourage those with interest in the legislative process to consider serving the people of the First District of Kansas in either one of our Kansas offices or in D.C."

Interns may be asked to complete a variety of tasks, including day-to-day office work such as answering phones, writing letters, and assisting with media clips. In addition, interns may be assigned to assist with constituent casework or attend Congressman Huelskamp's public events throughout the First District.

Hours in the Kansas offices generally run from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. This is an unpaid internship.

Additional information about the internship program can be found at huelskamp.house.gov/internships.

Congressman Tim Huelskamp represents the First District of Kansas. He serves on the House Small Business Committee and the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs. He is a member of the Republican Study Committee.
