

Woman has two sets of boys at once

HOUSTON (AP) — A Texas woman has beaten long odds in delivering two sets of identical twin boys.

The Houston Chronicle (bit.ly/W0Asnn) reports Tressa Montalvo delivered her sons on Thursday — Valentine's Day — at

The Woman's Hospital of Texas.

The 36-year-old Montalvo delivered sons Ace and Blaine at 8:51 a.m. Ace weighed 3 pounds, 10 ounces, and Blaine weighed in at 3 pounds, 15 ounces. Sons Cash and Dylan arrived a minute later — Cash at 2 pounds, 15 ounces, and Dylan at 3 pounds, 6 ounces.

Montalvo says she and her 43-year-old husband, Manuel, planned the pregnancy but didn't use fertility drugs. In her words, "I guess we just succeeded a little too much."

Paper mistaken for gunshot

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Police in Pennsylvania say a student's report of a gunshot being fired was instead the sound of a newspaper hitting the sidewalk.

Gettysburg police Chief Joseph Dougherty says a Gettysburg College student had reported that someone in a white sedan fired a shot early Saturday morning. But Dougherty says police investigated and determined the sound came from a newspaper delivery driver throwing a paper from her vehicle.

After the report, the college alerted students and employees via text messages, voicemails and e-mails. A college spokeswoman says an all-clear message was sent around 8:30 a.m.
