

Colby Recreation Department to hold women’s pick up games

The Colby Recreation Department won’t have a women’s basketball league this year, said Director Stacy Jasper, but will help organize pickup games on Thursdays.

“Unfortunately, there were not enough teams signed up to have an official women’s basketball league,” Jasper said, “but there has been enough interest to at least designate an evening for women-only pick up.”

Games will begin at 7 p.m. next Thursday. Cost is $15 to play Thursday evenings in April and May. No college basketball players will be allowed, she added; games are for adult women only.

Also, the department’s 3-on-3 and 5-on-5 Youth Basketball Tournaments are coming up in April.

It will be the first year for the 5-on-5 Youth Basketball Tournament, which will be held Saturday, April 27, at the Colby Grade School gym and the Community Building. Cost is $100 per team, with boys and girls groups divided into third and fourth grades and fifth and sixth grades.

Teams should dress in the same color and numbers are required, Jasper said. Rules will be sent out with the schedule, which will be mailed or e-mailed by Wednesday, April 24.

All teams are guaranteed at least two games with awards being given to the first- and second-place teams in each division.

Admission is $1, players excluded, and concessions and T-shirts will be sold at each site.

The deadline to sign up is Friday, April 19. Registration may be dropped off or mailed to the Colby Recreation Department, 285 E. Fifth St., Colby, Kan., 67701.

The 3-on-3 tournament will be on Saturday, April 13, at the same sites. The deadline to sign up is Friday, April 5, and cost is $30 per team.

The guidelines for the 5-on-5 tournament also apply to the 3-on-3 except there will be an extra division: seventh and eighth grades for boys and girls.

Miami Heat’s winning streak ends at 27

CHICAGO (AP) – The streak is over. The big prize is still out there.

That’s what mattered most to LeBron James and the Miami Heat.

The Heat’s bid for NBA history ended Wednesday night when their 27-game winning streak was snapped by the Chicago Bulls 101-97, setting off a raucous celebration inside United Center. Miami finished six shy of the 33-game record held by the 1971-72 Los Angeles Lakers.

With 11 games remaining, there’s no time for Miami to take another shot at the record. A big run in the postseason would seem to be a sure bet.

After all, that’s what it’s about for the Heat. It’s been that way ever since James and Chris Bosh joined Dwyane Wade in Miami in the summer of 2010.

They delivered last season, capturing a championship, and are eyeing a repeat.

The record? It would have been a bonus.

What stood out about the streak? The streak that began on Super Bowl Sunday, Feb. 3, came to an end despite his best efforts.

James tried to spur yet another comeback in the final minutes, getting mad after a rough foul. But the reigning MVP could never get the defending champions even, much less ahead, down the stretch.
