But young Larry didn't want a career in music until much later. He said he hid his musical talents when he was young because of peer pressure.

Instead, he put his efforts into sports, earning a baseball scholarship to Nashville's Belmont College where he played for three years.

'Sports took me to Nashville," said Stewart, and while he was in Nashville, his musical talent blossomed. He started singing jingles while he was in college and playing at other musicians' studio sessions.

In 1983, several musicians formed the band Restless Heart, and they asked Stewart to be their lead vocalist. He turned them down.

on his honeymoon and recorded his first album all in the same month.

At their first show, Restless Heart opened for the group Alabama, and Stewart said he was scared to death.

A lot of country music critics did not like the group's unique vocal sound, predicting they would split within two years, said Stewart.

"Country music was very traditional then," Stewart said, but while the critics had their doubts, the fans did not. Over the next Fairgrounds. The group recently released "The Playlist," a collection of their best music plus some new recordings. Their first-ever Christmas album, a combination of classic Christmas songs and originals, is scheduled for release on October 31.

Restless Heart performs at 8 p.m. Friday in the grandstands at the Thomas County

The deadline for Briefly is noon the day before. Items submitted in the morning will be set up for the next edition, space available. The deadline for Monday's paper is noon Friday.

Book sale at library lasts all week

The Pioneer Memorial Library's Book Sale Blowout will be today through Sunday during regular business hours. For best selection, come early. For sale prices, markdowns begin Wednesday with half price and get steadily better, with free books Sunday. For information call the library at 460-4470.

Volunteers needed for carnival rides

Volunteers are needed for the carnival at the Thomas County Fair, Tuesday through Saturday. Shifts can be two or four hours. For information or to volunteer, call the Chamber office at 460-3401.
