Girl finds stolen ashes in park

CLAIRTON, Pa. (AP) – A girl has found cremation ashes that had been stolen from a van belonging to the dead man's son.

Robert Smith says he thinks someone in the crime-ridden Pittsburgh suburb of Clairton mistook his father's ashes for a powdery drug like heroin or cocaine. He says, "You know this is a high drug area.... It's sad."

Smith says his father died in June at age 75. Since then, Smith has kept his ashes in a memorial box in the center console of his van.
