

Marita Birkholtz drove a train of cars that carried youngsters for a ride during the Flatlander Fall Festival.

Hot rods, dogs and bakers come to compete

Dianna Spinney stood by a sunflower wreath which was her prize for winning "Best of Show" in the Sunflower Bake-Off held Saturday during the Flatlander Fall Festival.

Talen Martin, 9, (above) entered Stella, his St. Bernard, in the scruffy dog contest Saturday. She won in the category of largest dog. Northwest Kansas Technical School students (below) barbecued hamburgers.

Two women looked at one of the many hot rods on display Saturday and Sunday at the Early Iron Rod Run on Main Street in Goodland.

PHOTOS BY JANET CRAFT
AND RACHEL MISCALL