

Lots of practice makes for a better game

A tennis clinic for girls in fifth through 11th grades was held this week in Goodland to learn tennis fundamentals. (Left to right) Shannon Showalter, 14; Jessica Lu, 12; Jillian Parker, 12; and Jennifer Mentzer, 15, practiced singles tennis play Thursday afternoon at Goodland's Gulick Park. The girls were coached by Wallace Hansen of Goodland and Tony Parker of Manhattan. Photos by Janet Craft/The Goodland Daily News

Wichita missionaries and eighteen others held captive by Muslim extremists

LAMPINIT, Philippines — Muslim extremists holding three American tourists and 17 Filipinos hostage clashed with Philippine government forces on a rugged, jungle-covered island today, killing two soldiers and wounding at least 14 others, the military said.

Troops were fighting a "running gun battle" with the Abu Sayyaf rebels on Basilan island in the southern Philip-

ap news capsules

pinos, said military spokesman Brig. Gen. Edilberto Adan.

"The mission is clear: to maintain contact so as to prevent them from escaping. We are not here to disengage. We want to engage," Adan said. He said about 100 rebels were in the area and that he had no information on the condition of the hostages.

Abu Sabaya, a leader of the Muslim extremist group Abu Sayyaf, phoned a local radio station during the fighting and said two of the hostages had been hit by gunfire. Sounding out of breath, he repeated a threat to kill the captives taken Sunday at an island resort.

Two of the Americans, Martin and Gracia Burnham of Wichita, are Protestant missionaries who have lived in the Philippines since 1986. The third American was identified as Guillermo Sobero of Corona, Calif.

AUSTIN, Texas — Police on Thursday cited President Bush's 19-year-old twin daughters for allegedly violating state alcoholic beverage laws.

It would be the second offense for Jenna Bush and the first for her sister, Barbara.

Police accused Barbara Bush of being a minor in possession of alcohol and Jenna Bush of misrepresenting her age for allegedly trying to use false identification to buy alcohol, according to a statement from the Austin Police Department.

Both are Class C misdemeanors. If convicted, Jenna Bush could lose her driver's license for up to 90 days because it would be a second offense, according to the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission.

A third person, Jesse Day-Wickham, also was cited for being a minor in possession of alcohol. An associate of the Bush family said Day-Wickham is a girlfriend of the Bush twins.

A police investigation determined that Jenna Bush allegedly ordered a margarita and was asked to produce identification proving she was 21. She showed a valid driver's license belonging to someone else, police said. She was not served.

Witnesses told police that Barbara Bush and Day-Wickham were served alcohol.
