Cynthia and James Palmquist

Couple ties knot

Cynthia McClure and James Palmquist, both of Goodland, married Saturday, Sept. 23, 2006, at the Bethany Lutheran Church in Lindsborg.

Pastor Richard Monson officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Robert McClure and Gudrun McClure, both of Goodland, are the bride's parents, and John and Sharon Palmquist of Goodland are the groom's.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Fillberg Limited satin A-line white wedding gown with a chiffon split front. The bodice was embellished with pearls, crystals, beadwork and metallic embroidery, which also adorned the cap sleeves, front and bottom of the gown and accent the chapel-length train.

She wore a silver, 3-D crystal flower and rhinestone tiara, holding a white blusher veil. She carried a cascade of peach sweetheart roses, white stock, lime-green mums, Asiatic lilies and dendrobium orchids.

The matron of honor was Carol McClure of Goodland, sister of the bride. She wore a black tissue taffeta ballgown skirt with front tacking and back bustle with a chocolate-and-black metallic brocade halter top accented at the waist with a copper tissue taffeta sash.

Eric Palmquist of Shawnee, brother of the groom, was the best man. Monte McClure of Frederick, Md., brother of the bride, was the usher. Genevieve Bishop was the organist, and Jodi Frisbie sang "Ave Maria."

A dinner reception was held at the Rosberg House bed and breakfast in Lindsborg. The candlelight dinner was catered by Simple Sophistication Catering. The reception featured a performance by Kristen Fleming, a folk harpist, a gift from the matron of honor. Irene Nielsen designed the dinner menu, an original pencil art piece.

The buffet included a chef carving station highlighting baron of beef, cooked shrimp served from a clamshell ice sculpture and a chocolate fountain with dessert dipping foods.
