The Goodland Elks K-18 team lost a doubleheader at Oakley, 10-4 and 2-0, last Monday.

In the first inning of the first game, Austin Avelar grounded out to short. Ryan Hillmer grounded to second, as did Michael Pettibone.

The first batter for Oakley, Kyle Zerr, hit a single, then Tad Parsons walked. Brandon Maurath hit a single.

Cody Steward was out short to first, and Patrick Loftus grounded to second, scoring another run. Mickey Stewart grounded out to the pitcher. Zerr, Parsons and Maurath all scored, and Oakley led 3-0.

In the top of the second, Dallas DeLaRosa hit a ball to second for an out. Laine Herl made it to first on an error of the third baseman, then was thrown out trying to steal second. Reed Bellamy walked and then stole second, but David Murray grounded to short.

The first batter for Oakley made it to first from an error by second baseman Ryan Hillmer, stole second and then made it to third on another error by catcher Laine Herl, and scored. Oakley led 4-0.

Goodland was unable to score in the top of the third and Oakley had three up and three out.

In the top of the fourth, Reed Bellamy made it to first on an error by the second baseman, stole second and scored a run.

The first two batters for Oakley struck out. Trae Prevatt walked, advanced to second, stole third and scored. Zerr made it to first on an error by the third baseman, advanced on a hit by Parsons and scored. Parsons also scored. Oakley led 7-0.

In the top of the fifth, Hilmer walked, stole second and third and was batted in by DeLaRosa. Pettibone walked, stole second and was batted in by Ben Waugh. Herl went to first after being hit by a pitch, stole second and was batted in by Waugh. Patrick Loftus scored the only run for Oakley in the fifth, but Oakley led 8-4.

Goodland didn't score any runs in the sixth and seventh. Oakley scored two, by Parsons and Maurath, in the sixth, and won the game 10-4.

In the second game, in the top of the first Hillmer hit a single, went to second on an error by the pitcher and was left on third when the next three batters were out. The first batter for Oakley, Parsons, walked, stole second and third and got one of the two Oakley runs.

In the second inning, Goodland had three up and three down. Oakley was also unable to score.

Goodland remained scoreless in the top of the third. Waugh and Hillmer hit singles. Waugh was tagged out and Hillmer was left on base.

The first batter for Oakley in the bottom of the third, Loftus, hit a single and went to second when the next batter, Stewart was hit by a pitch. Loftus went to third on a single by Lex Brandon and scored when Parsons made it to first on an error by the shortstop. Oakley led 2-0.

Both teams remained scoreless until the game was called at the top of the fifth. Oakley won 2-0.

The Goodland Elks K-18 team played against Burlington on Sunday, winning the first game 14-11. The second game was not played due to wind.

The next games for the team will be the Western Regional at Colby on Friday to Sunday, July 20 to 22.

Elks K-18 pitcher Garth Helton threw a ball to a Burlington batter on Saturday in Burlington. Goodland won the first game 14-11 but there was no second game due to the wind.

Goodland Slammers take third in tournament

The Goodland Slammers 12-and-under girls fast-pitch softball team took third in the Thunder on the Plains tournament in Burlington last weekend, winning two games and losing two.

The Slammers won games against Stratton, 14-3, and Burlington No. 2, 17-5, but lost to Southern Plains, 9-1, and Burlington No. 1, 16-4. The tournament was held June 30 and July 1.

The Slammers season record now stands at 9-9.

In the first game, against Stratton the Slammers jumped ahead 11-1 in the first inning. Stephanie DeLaRosa was the winning pitcher.

Hope Cochran got things started with a leadoff single, scoring on a single by Paige Phillips. Back-to-back doubles by Amber Smith and Selena Acosta brought across three runs. Another single by Cochran drove in a run, and Berkley White drove in another with a single. Brianna White hit a single to drive in two runs before the end of the inning.

Goodland added three runs in the third on singles by DeLaRosa and Brianna White and another double by Phillips.

In the second game, against Southern Plains, the Slammers fell behind early and did not score until the fourth, when Brianna White got a single with two outs. Phillips followed with a single, and DeLaRosa hit a single to score White for Goodland's only run.

Southern Plains led 3-0 after the first inning, 5-0 after the second inning 7-0 in the third inning and added two runs in the fourth to win 9-1. Phillips was the losing pitcher for the Slammers.

In the third game, against Burlington No. 2, the game was tied at 1. Cochran had a leadoff single. Berkley White's double put runners on second and third. Lindsay Bauman struck out. Brianna White hit a single to drive Cochran across, but she and her sister were picked off to end the inning.

In the second inning, Phillips got a leadoff single and the Slammers batted around, scoring 10 runs. Cochran, Brianna White and Acosta hit singles, and DeLaRosa had two. Berkley White had a double to drive in two of the runs to make it 11-1.

The Slammers added six runs in the third to win 17-5. Phillips got the win.

In the fourth game, against Burlington No. 1, the Slammers fell behind 2-1 in the first. Burlington kept the Slammers off the bases and scored 7 runs in the second to lead 9-1. Burlington added three in the third and four in the fourth to win 16-4.

The Slammers scored three in the fourth inning. Phillips was the losing pitcher.

Southern Plains won the tournament. Burlington No. 1 was second, the Slammers third, Stratton fourth and Burlington No. 2 fifth.

Goodland graduate to play for Texas school

Goodland native Derrick Raymer begins his third season of college football next month with a new team when the Bearkats of Sam Houston State University open at home on Thursday, Aug. 30, in Huntsville, Texas.

Sam Houston State is an NCAA football Championship Subdivision school, formerly known as Division I-AA, and a member of the Southland Conference. The Bearkats begin their season against in-state opponent Angelo State, an NCAA Division II school.

Raymer, a junior punter, played his first two college seasons at Garden City Community College. As a sophomore, he led the Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference in punting with over 40 yards per boot, earning first-team all-conference honors.

Raymer was third among conference kickers in scoring with 34 points on three field goals and 25 extra points.

As a defensive back for the Broncbusters, he was third on the team in tackles with 73 and had five interceptions, earning all-conference honorable mention.

Derrick is the son of Steve and Debra Raymer of Goodland. His father is the principal at Grant Junior High and his mother works at the state Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services office in Goodland.

The Bearkats will play an 11-game schedule after going 6-5 last season.
