

'Sundae Sunday' honors ice cream day

Travis Blake, pastor at the First Baptist Church, his wife Alyson, son Brennan, 3, and daughter Audrey, 1, picked toppings for their ice cream sundaes at "Sundae Sunday" in honor of National Ice Cream Day Sunday afternoon at Wheat Ridge Acres Retirement Community. Residents invited family and friends to the event, said Activities Director Cindy Pletcher, and had visitors from as far away as Wyoming. Over 189 dishes of ice cream were served, said Director Donna Swager, plus some sherbet. The dining room and living room were full, and people were lined up in the hallway and standing in the activity room, where the sundaes were washed out.

Man trying to raise $304,000 for church

By Jan Katz Ackerman
Colby Free Press

A former Brewster man has taken his March mission trip a step further and hopes to raise $304,000 for a church in Chile.

"I traveled to Chile, in South America, where I learned about a church in the town of Castro that is in need of a new church building," said Joel Selby. "I have started the Castro Church Project to raise money to allow this group to build a new church."

Selby, 21, is in Brewster waiting to leave for Arizona, where he will begin work for Archer Western Contractors in Phoenix starting July 23.

A 2004 graduate of Brewster High School, he attended Colby Community College, then Kansas State University at Salina, where he earned an associate's degree in construction engineering technology in December 2006.

The son of Lonnie and Patricia Selby of Brewster, Joel has two brothers, Karman, 19, and Devan, 15.

Selby said his trip to Chile spurred a desire to help the members of the Castro Church, which is growing rapidly.

"The current structure is falling down, and the 180-member congregation has outgrown it," Selby said. "In addition, there are more people who would attend services if there were room. They need help raising the funds to build a new church because they do not have the financial resources to do it on their own."

Selby said when he was in Chile, he saw God working through the congregation and the pastors.

"This assures me that it is God's will that they have a new building," Selby said. "The church is growing, they are serving their community, and they are spreading the gospel."

Selby said on average, one to two people each week commit their lives to Jesus Christ through the church.

"Having a new building will enable them to continue the good work they are doing," he said.

For information about the project, visit a web site Selby has established at <http://www.castrochurchproject.info:80>.

Selby said all donations given will go to the Gospel Foursquare Church in Castro; donations can be mailed to the Levant Community Church, 205 First St., Levant Kan. 67743.

Church held gathering in Colby park

The Methodist Church planned a gathering in Colby's Fike Park on Sunday. Swimming, volleyball, horseshoes and lawn games were the afternoon activities, and a potluck picnic followed.

On Monday, the summer reading program group was to have skits to perform for us and snacks afterwards at the senior center.

We got a good rain Sunday night, July 8, 30 points here in town, with a lot of thunder and lightning. Pray for a lot more for the fall crops, as we are really getting dry.

It is very easy to miss the perfectly delightful experiences and moments of peace or joy when you are preoccupied with all of the possible tragedies that could befall you.

It is quite possible that you have many of the bad situations you have in your life because you pay so much attention to them, they feel welcomed. It is also reasonable to believe that if you stopped paying too much attention to the bad things, they would feel neglected and go away. If you don't believe it, try it just to see if it works.

Colby college golfers plan twilight scramble

Colby Community College golfers will hold their annual Groovin' Twilight Scramble on Friday at Meadow Lake Golf Course in Colby.

The nine-hole event will begin at 4 p.m. (Mountain Time) with a "Hole-in-One" contest. Tee-off for four-person teams (any combination) is set for 5:30.

In addition to flight prizes, a special prize will be given for the best '60s, '70s or '80s outfit. Food and a dance, including hoola-hoop and limbo contests, will follow the tournament.

Proceeds will be donated to the golf program. Call Tonja at (785) 460-6443 to register.
