Goodland couple's son to coach

Two Goodland High School students will attend the 24th annual Kansas Masonic All-State High School Marching Band Camp this week and perform at the Shrine Bowl on Saturday in Hays.

A Goodland couple's son will coach the West team and several area students will take part as musicians or on the field.

Devin Mangus, trumpet, and Tanner Oharrah, trombone, will attend a five-day band camp starting today at Fort Hays State University. The band, featuring top high school musicians from across the state, will march in a parade at 9 a.m. (Mountain Time) Saturday in downtown Hays and play at the game Saturday night.

Jason Kenny, Ulysses High School coach, and son of Dale and Sharon Kenny of Goodland, will coach the West team. His father is a manager at Century Feeders and his mother works at the Northwest Kansas Technical College.

Levi Weeden of St. Francis Community High School will play for the West team. The pregame show will begin at 5:30 p.m. (Mountain Time) and kick off will be at 6 p.m. at Fort Hays State University's Lewis Field Stadium.

Parking lots open at 3 p.m. Ticket can be bought in advance by calling (800) 530-5524 or at the door for $1 more. Reserved seat (chair back seats between the 30 yard lines) are extra. The game will be broadcast on Smoky Hills Public Television.

The band will perform before the game and at half-time, which is estimated to start at 7:45 p.m.

The 214 students in the band will be directed by Gary Brattin and his Fort Hays State University band staff. Other students from the area attending band camp include Courtney Ress, clarinet, from Colby High School, and Cara Hunt, piccolos/flutes, Corbin Sherlock, trumpets, and Taylor Spike, trombone, all of St. Francis.

More than 4,000 young people have performed in the Kansas Masonic All-State High School Marching Band since 1984.

The marching band is a project of the Kansas Masonic Foundation, and the cost for each student is paid by local lodges and other affiliated bodies in their home towns. Money left from band camp after expenses is donated to the Kansas Masonic Cancer Research Institute at the University of Kansas Medical Center in Kansas City. Net proceeds from the Shrine Bowl game are donated to the Shriner's Hospitals for Children.

Other events for Shrine Bowl weekend include

- Training Camp opened for the west squad at 8 a.m. Friday at St. John's Military School in Salina.
- East Camp was at Emporia State University.
- A church service was held Sunday for all squad members.

• 2007 Shrine Bowl All-Star Cheer members will report to Fort Hays State for Cheer Camp at noon Thursday.

• Thursday morning, both squads will be taken by jet to St. Louis for a short tour and to visit the St. Louis Shriners Hospital.

• Both squads practice on the game field Friday.

• A Player Appreciation Banquet 5 to 8:30 p.m. Friday. All seats are reserved, advance sales only while available seating lasts. Call (800) 530-5524 to tickets to your credit card. Sponsorships for $75 include two tickets and help pay the costs of participants.

• Parents of Participants Informational Breakfast 6:30 a.m.

• 5K Run for charity and one-mile Walk for Wellness 6:30 a.m. Everyone welcome.

• Parade formation 8 a.m.

• Charity Arts and Crafts Fair 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. — fine arts, handmade crafts, commercial and unique used items — at Municipal Park.

• Kids Fair 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Several "moon walk" type activities, games and displays.

• Shrine Bowl Western Kansas High School Combine 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Pro-style testing and measuring of high school football athletes by a top notch staff headed by Ron Freeman and Paul Coffman.

• Poker run for charity, autos and bikes, noon. Three scenic stops in the Hays area.
