

Legion tourney starts on Friday

The Goodland American Legion baseball team will face off against top-seeded Colby at 6 p.m. Friday at Memorial Field in the first round of the Zone 7 American Legion AA tournament, which continues on Saturday and Sunday.

Goodland is host for the zone tournament, and Coach John Dautel said it looks to be one of the most even he has seen. He said Colby is the top seed, Norton second, Scott City third and Goodland fourth.

Dautel said anyone of the four could take the double-elimination tournament.

The opening game at 4 p.m. on Friday will match Scott City and Norton. Round two games will be at 2, 4 and 6 p.m. on Saturday, with the finals at 2 p.m. on Sunday.

The winner will advance to the state American Legion AA tournament Aug. 3-7 in Pratt. The winner from the state tournament will play in the Mid-States Regional Aug. 15-10 in Beulah, N.D., the birthplace of Legion baseball.

Members of the team include Preston Dautel (12), Teather Dautel (18), Tyler Hillmer (13), Rory Kling (16), Vance Johnson (20), Derrick Fenner (21), T.J. Freeman (2), Brandon Rome (9), Kevin Amthor (30), Dustin Zelfer (3), Tory Elder (10) of Sharon Springs and Brian Plummer (1) of Russell Springs. Coaches are John and Wyatt Dautel and Jake Johnson.

The American Legion Class AA program is for players 19 or younger on Jan. 1. A team may be recruited from one or more high schools, provided total enrollment does not exceed 500 students. The Goodland American Legion Post sponsors the team.

Two swimmers compete in meets

Holton Witman (11-12 boys) swam at a swim meet in Wichita with his cousins on Friday and Saturday, July 13 and 14, and won first place in the 50-yard butterfly with a time of 35.38 seconds.

He was second in the 100-yard individual medley in 1 minute, 27.21 seconds, and swam with two relay teams which both came in fifth.

Taryn Bedore (11-12 girls) swam with her cousins on the Parson team at Joplin, Mo. She was eighth in the 50-meter backstroke (49.25), eighth in the 50-meter breaststroke (51.32) and eighth in the 200-yard individual medley (3:52.78).

She also swam in the 50-meter freestyle, 100-meter freestyle and 50-meter butterfly in the 50-meter pool.

Goodland Lancers lose two to Oakley

The Goodland Lancers 14-and-under girls fast-pitch softball team lost two games to Oakley, 12-4 and 8-7.

The team, coached by Cody and Greg Pettibone, played in Oakley on July 8.

In the first game, Goodland took a 1-0 lead at the end of the first inning, but Oakley came back to lead 6-2 at the end of the second.

Goodland went down in order in the third and fourth, while Oakley picked up a run in the third and three in the fourth to lead 10-2.

Goodland added two runs in the fifth, but Oakley added two also to win 12-4.

In the second game, Jessi Geist led off for Goodland and scored on a hit by Andrea Roeder.

Katlyn Topliff made it to third base, but Roeder was picked off at second to end the Goodland half of the inning.

Oakley scored three runs in the first to lead 3-1.

Goodland battled back in the second with Tatum Elder, Day Waugh, Geist and Katlyn Topliff scoring. Elder led off with a walk. Waugh got a hit, and Geist got a hit to score Elder. Topliff drew a walk, but was driven in by Kirsten Topliff. Roeder drove in Geist, and Sydnee Thornburg drove in Katlyn Topliff.

Oakley scored four runs in the second to lead 8-6.

Goodland battled back in the third with two outs. Geist got a hit. Katlyn Topliff drew a walk. Roeder got a hit to drive Geist in, and Kirsten Topliff drove in Katlyn Topliff to close the score at 8-7, but Thornburg's out ended the comeback.

In a tournament at Hill City on June 30 and July 1, the Lancers lost three games. They lost on Saturday to Colby's Sweet Thunder, 18-0, and to the Ellis Blaze, 13-8. On Sunday, the Lancers lost to Plainville, 22-7.

Other members of the Lancers include Trace Waugh and Chantel Coats.

Coats had two hits against Plainville and Trace Waugh had a hit in the first game against Oakley.

Coats pitched the game against Colby and the first game against Oakley.

Roeder pitched against Plainville, and Kirsten Topliff pitched against Ellis.
