Homecoming parade Thursday

The Sherman County High School Alumni Association is getting ready for the Goodland High School's annual homecoming parade and pep rally on Thursday. The theme is "Show Down at the Cowboy Corral."

The parade will start at 6:30 p.m. at Eighth and Main and go to 13th and Main to turn east to go to Cowboys Stadium for the pep rally and bonfire which should start around 7 p.m.

Participants in the parade will assemble at 6 p.m. at the following locations. Convertibles, classic cars and motorcycles will be in front of the library and courthouse at Eighth and Broadway. Floats, flatbed trailers and organizational entries will be alongside the street by the courthouse and Gulick Park.

The Goodland High School band will assemble near the intersection of Eighth and Main and will lead the parade with the City of Goodland Police Department and Veterans of Foreign Wars Color Guard.

The Alumni Association will give a prize of $50 to all high school organizations or classes with parade entries. There will also be the traditional appearances of 2007 Homecoming King and Queen candidate riding in convertibles and the high school sports team on trailers. The "Jumpin' Juniors." Senior parents cheerleaders and Black and Gold Booster Club will also be there.

The members of the Class of 1957 will be honored at the pep rally and Friday night's football game. Former homecoming queens and attendant will be riding in convertibles.

The pep rally at the stadium will have skits by the Senior parents and Senior members of the football team routines by the cheerleaders, a musical number by the "Jumpin' Juniors" and music by the band.

The association encourages everyone to come to the event and the homecoming football game at 6 p.m. on Friday against the Hay High Indians.

Couple wed at lake in Lawrence

Abigail and Nathan Robinson

Abigail Lynn Boone and Nathan James Robinson of Lawrence were married on Saturday, June 2, 2007, at Potter Lake on the Kansas University Campus in Lawrence with Rick Clock officiating.

Dan and Linda Boone of Great Bend are the bride's parents and Bill and Doris Robinson of Paola formerly of Great Bend are the groom's parents. The bride's grandparents are Lawrence and Helen Musil of Goodland and great-grandparents are Delmer and Arleta Musil of Goodland and Lydia Hilt of St. Francis.

The bride wore an ivory Maggie Sottero strapless, all-over lace gown with a sweep train. The gown was embellished with bugle beads, sequins and pearls. The bride added a sash that crossed in front and tied in back, accented with a diamond-look broach. She wore a floor length veil and carried a hand tied bouquet of white roses, peonies and white ranunculus.

The bride was escorted by her father.

Sarah Dykes served as maid of honor and Katie Lear, both of Great Bend, served as bridesmaid. They wore strapless tea length dresses in sage with ivory sashes and carried bouquets of pink roses and peonies.

David Waite of Ellinwood was the best man and Tim Ruble of Manhattan was the groomsman.

Jared Boone of Great Bend, Josh Deschner of Wichita and Randine Robinson of Manhattan were the ushers. Chris Sieker of Oklahoma City, Okla., provided the vocal music and a string quartet provided the instrumental music.

The bride is a graduate of Kansas University with a Bachelor of Science degree in exercise science. She will attend Cleveland Chiropractic College in the fall.

The groom is a graduate of Emporia State with a Bachelor of Science degree. He began teaching business at Paola High School this fall.

The couple honeymooned in Jamaica.
