MEMORIAL
In Loving Memory of Larry Wilkinson
Reflections of the First Year
Tears stream down my eyes, as I say my last goodbye; I take your hand in mine, as I watch you sleep for your last time. I stare at you lying in that hospital bed, memories of you spin all through my head. All the good times, happy and some sad. Sometimes I say, just give me one more day. All our dreams can not come true. I can not have the future that we planned. I will always love and miss you but no words are needed with one who's been there, you just glance in their face and your sorrow they share. Our Precious Lord gives us faith and hope for Life is tenuous and valuable. We carry your heart with us.
Loved and sadly missed by:
Cindy, Scott, Malcom, family and friends
