

Cowboys open substate at fieldhouse

Wednesday, the Goodland High Cowboys learned they will face Ulysses in the first round of the Class 4A substate basketball tournament in a home game at Max Jones Fieldhouse on Tuesday.

The Cowboys (9-11) are the third seed in the substate bracket while Ulysses (5-14) is sixth.

Tuesday, the two teams will tip off at 6 p.m. at Max Jones, and the winner will advance to the semifinals Friday at Russell. Substate champions will be determined Saturday.

The Colby Eagles (15-5), the top seed, face No. 8 Pratt (4-15) in Colby on Tuesday. Nickerson (10-9) is the second seed and will play Kingman (5-14), while Hugoton (7-13) will face Russell (6-14).

Cowboys Coach Brad Bergsma says he thinks the Ulysses Tigers are better than their record might indicate.

"I think this is a case where the records are very misleading," Bergsma said. "Ulysses started the year in both the coaches' and sports writers' top 10."

"They are led by two very talented players, Jared Irvin (senior, 5 foot, 7 inches) and Michael Morales (senior 6 foot, five inches), both of whom were very big contributors on a very good team last year."

"They have a new coach and system this season, so I am sure they have experienced some growing pains as a result."

"We expect their big guy to be a load to handle, and are glad we get to play this one at home."

The Tigers have played Scott City and Colby, teams the Cowboys have played this season. Ulysses beat Scott City 52-43 but lost to Colby twice, 72-49 and 54-36.

The Cowboys lost to Scott City twice, 63-38 and 71-37, and lost to Colby twice, 64-45 and 65-48.

Friday night, the Thomas More Prep-Marion Monarchs from Hays took an early lead against the Tigers and cruised to a 54-42 win at Ulysses.

For the Tigers, Irvin had 16 points, included two 3-pointers and four-for-five shooting from the free-throw line. Morales had 15 points with one 3-point shot and was four for six free-throw shooting.

Bergsma said the game Tuesday should be exciting, and he hopes a lot of people will turn out.

"We'll need all the help we can get," he said.

Junior Greg Farris is leading the Cowboys in scoring, averaging 11.7 points per game, the coach said. Junior Brandon Rome has been playing more in the absence of senior Tanner Smith, who was hurt in the game at Oberlin. Rome is hitting an average of 7.1 points per game.

Senior Preston Dautel has the highest percentage of three-point baskets, Bergsma said, making 43 percent of those shots (18 of 42), and is averaging 6.8 points per game. Farris leads the team in three pointers with 19 out of his 57 attempts for 33 percent.

Junior Travis Angelos is averaging 6 points per game, and leads the team in assists with 49 for an average of 4.1 per game. He leads the Cowboys in steals with 23 and averages 1.9 per game.

Angelos leads the team in field-goal percentage, hitting 45 percent of his shots (32 of 71).

Senior Josh Duke is averaging 4.4 points per game and 3.1 rebounds per game. Senior Forrest Trachsel is averaging 3.5 points per game and has been playing more with Smith out. Senior Grant Wilkens, another of the Cowboys who has been coming off the bench, is averaging 1.3 points a game.

Bergsma said Tanner Smith, who was hurt in Oberlin, was being checked out by the doctor on Wednesday afternoon.

"I expect him to be cleared," Bergsma said, "but even if he is, I'm not sure how quickly we can get him into game shape. We'll be glad to get him back, but not sure how much of a role he'll be able to play next week."

Cowgirls to travel to Kingman for substate Monday

The Goodland Cowgirls learned Wednesday they will travel to Kingman to face the Lady Eagles at 6 p.m. on Monday in the first round of the Class 4A substate tournament.

The Cowgirls (6-14) are the fifth seed in the bracket and are facing the Kingman Lady Eagles (8-11) who are the fourth seed.

The second-ranked Colby

Lady Eagles (20-0) are the top seed and will play Russell (0-20) in Colby on Monday. Nickerson (11-8) is the second seed and will play Pratt (2-17), and Ulysses (10-9) will play Hugoton (3-16).

The semifinals and championship rounds will be held in Russell on Thursday and Saturday.

Cowgirls Coach Don Smith said

there are some similarities between the Cowgirls and the Eagles, but knows it will be a night when the Cowgirls have to play their best game.

He said Kingman has one tall girl, Andi Miller (senior 5'11"), and she is their leading scorer. He said the Cowgirls will have to try to hold her down.

Smith said Kingman has had some similar games to what the Cowgirls have with low scoring games where the winning score was down in the 30s and 40s, but they have had some higher scoring games as well.

He said the Cowgirls will be prepared and have had good practices this week.

Kingman won three games early in the season, and had a six-game losing streak from the end of January until they defeated Wellington, 45-35, on Friday.

The Eagles have a game tonight against top-ranked Andover Central (19-0).

Miller leads the Eagles scoring an average of 12.1 points per game. Jordan Bangert (senior 5'4") is second with 8.3 points per game, and Bethany Moli-ter (senior 5'7") averages 6.8 points per game.

The Cowgirls are coming off a heartbreaking 64-62 loss to the Hoxie Lady Indians on Friday.

Smith said the girls played a good game against Hoxie and that it was a positive game. He said the only negative was that Hoxie finished with two more points than the Cowgirls.

Lady Trojans lose 79-49

The Colby Community College Lady Trojans lost 79-49 Saturday at No. 21-ranked Cloud County. The Lady Trojans trailed by six at half-time, but Cloud opened up the game, out-scoring the Lady Trojans 47-23 in the second half.

The Lady Trojans struggled offensively, shooting 33 percent from the field and made just 4-20 from three point range. Colby also committed 24 turnovers.

Erin Goodhue came off the bench to lead the Lady Trojans with 11 points. Goodhue was 4-6 from the field and 2-2 from the free-throw line. Sandra Sormaz had nine points and attempted only six shots from the field.

Goodland High School graduate Whitney Archer had eight points, Samantha Ciani had seven points and six rebounds and Lauren Fortin led the Lady Trojans with seven rebounds.

The Lady Trojans have now lost two in a row and stand at 11-16 overall and 6-7 in the Jayhawk Conference. They are now three games behind Seward County for fourth place in the Western Division with three to play. Unless Colby wins all and Seward loses their last three, the Lady Trojans will be going on the road for the first round of the Region VI Tournament.

Colby continued play Wednesday at Hutchinson Community College. The #23 ranked Lady Blue Dragons are 20-6 overall and 9-3 in the league, good for third place in the Western Division. They beat Colby earlier this year at the Colby Community Building 65-44.
