Staring a business, plan cash flow needs

Before starting a new business, make sure to project and plan for your cash flow needs.

You can be making a profit yet be in the hole at the bank.

Cash flow problems can lead to a vicious circle that becomes very tough to break.

If you can't pay your bills on time, you will not only need the cash for the bills but also for the late fees and interest charges.

Lack of cash hinders you from replenishing your inventory. No inventory, no sales, no cash.

Do you see how the circle gets vicious? Your cash flow needs grow while your cash inflows decline.
