School art club paints house trim

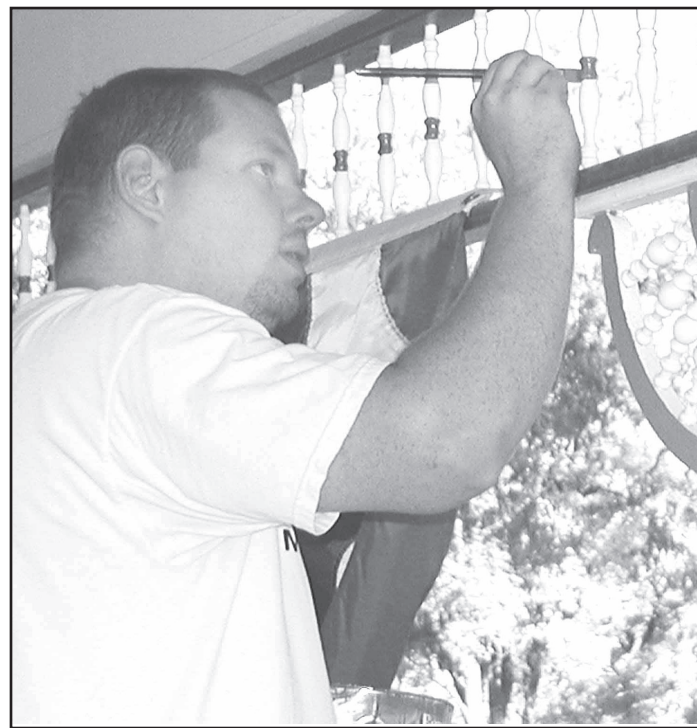

Jessica Geist (right), Goodland High School junior member of the art club and daughter of Gene and Paula Geist, painted on the fencing of the porch at the Ennis Handy house on Friday, Aug. 1. Jeff First (left) is a Goodland High School art teacher and sponsors the art club.

Members of the Goodland High School art club offered to finish painting the trim at the Ennis-Handy House for the Sherman County Historical Society.

On the gingerbread trim they added taupe and red colors to the spindles.

Goodland High School art teacher, Jeff First, is the sponsor for the club.

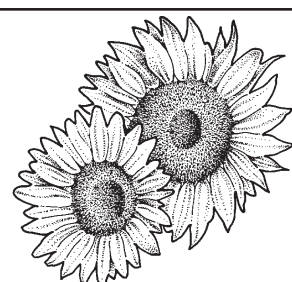

The Ennis-Handy House is a Victorian house open to the public which can be used for meetings and special events. Since the historical society has purchased the house in 2000 it has repainted, put the original style trim on the house and added fencing to the house. The house is furnished with period furniture.
