military news

Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class Kevin S. Powell, son of Jerry A. Peter of St. Francis, is halfway through a scheduled six-month deployment while assigned to the aircraft carrier USS Harry S. Truman home ported in Norfolk, Va.

Powell is on of more than 8,000 Atlantic Fleet Sailors and Marines on a six-month deployment to the Mediterranean Sea and Arabian Gulf while aboard the ships and squadrons of the USS Harry S. Truman Carrier Battle Group.

During the first part of the deployment, the ship took part in training exercises in the Mediterranean Sea and made a port visit to Koper, Slovenia. The sailors and Marines had the opportunity to shop, sightsee and enjoy the culture and cuisine of the area.

Others are deployed throughout the world to maintain U.S. presence and to provide rapid response in times of crisis.

Ernest R. Williams of Goodland and 129 of his fellow sailors left for a six-month deployment on board the USS Key West. The Los Angeles-class attack submarine left its home-port of Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, in January to conduct missions in support of the Global War on Terrorism.

Navy Seaman Recruit Williams is the 19-year-old son of George Shockey of Goodland. Williams said he drives the submarine and keeps it working and looking in top shape.

The Key West is one of the most technically advanced vessels in the Navy and has the ability to hunt and destroy enemy naval forces, lay mines near enemy ports, provide covert intelligence, support special operations forces and conduct cruise missile strikes against targets on shore.

farm services

Dennis R. Mote, county executive director of the U.S. Farm Service Agency, said there is a new yield provision for producers enrolling in the Direct and Counter-cyclical Program.

If a producer qualifies, the farm services county committee could use Loan Deficiency Payment records or assign a yield for crops based on three similar farms in the area. Producers already enrolled must file a request by Tuesday, April 1, to have the committee use the records or assign a yield instead of using the 75 percent yield plug.

District Court had 17 cases including two divorces

By Evelyn Ward

Sherman County Historical Society
April 4, 1903: The District Court — Seventeen Cases the Extent of the Docket — No Criminal Cases. Of the 17 cases, eight are confirmations, three are foreclosures and two are divorces. The rest are of a miscellaneous nature.

In the actions for divorce, John A. Miller is plaintiff and Nellie Miller defendant in the first case, and in the second, Mary T. Thompson is plaintiff and William Thompson defendant.

Judge Smith will arrive in Goodland Monday, and court will open Tuesday morning. Jurors include G.E. White, Alf Roth, Thomas P. Leonard, Chase Runnells, C.W. Jupe, C.S. Spaun, Thomas Butt, Hiram Roseneran, Frank Holtlinghead, J.H. Evans, Robert Brosnahan and J.W. Turner.

April 5, 1903: The Rev. F.E. Sherman of the Children's Home Society of Topeka was here the fore part of the week attending to the placing of a boy with Fritz Rust of Grant Township.

The orphan lad, who will find a good home with Mrs. Rust, is eight years old.

April 6, 1903: Mrs. A.D. Stewart will give a student's recital next Wednesday evening in her home. The ten students will be assisted by three local vocalists and the Goodland orchestra. Another recital will be given in about two weeks by the remaining students.

April 7, 1903: The board of county commissioners met at the court house on Monday and worked all day. Bills were allowed. The commissioners ordered the construction of a sidewalk from the court house to the walks of the main street. It will be laid south to the end of the block and then west to the Calvert corner.

The portion of the street to be traversed by this walk is in time of rains the muddiest part of the town, and the citizens of the county will be glad to hear of the order for the improvement.

From weekly issues of The Goodland News, provided by the Sherman County Historical Society.

I would like to Thank everyone who voted for me in the school board election. Your vote was appreciated.

I found a quick and painless cure.

When I developed hemorrhoids, my doctor recommended Hemcure...the painless, non-surgical treatment method performed by M.D.s. It took only a few short visits to the doctor's office. And since no recuperation was needed, I could resume my normal activities right away.

With Hemcure, curing my hemorrhoid problem was simple. Any cost, my insurance covered it.

Hemorrhoids aren't the easiest thing to talk about. But listen, if you've got hemorrhoids, why suffer? Do as I did and call to find out more.
