

IN LOVING MEMORY

My Son. My son, I always wanted you, even when I was a young child, playing house and cuddling dolls. My son, God gave you to me and I cared for you, rocked and sang to you, and it was wonderful. I wanted it to last forever. My son, quickly you grew and ornerly you were, with a large grin on your face, making friends with everyone you met. You learned how to ride a bike, climb the tallest trees, and make the best mud pies. My son, then you became a young man, handsome and strong. You had dreams of where you wanted to go, and what you wanted to do. Serving your country was your focus. I had to let you go and trust in God to care for you. My son, I always wanted you, but God wanted you more. It was just too soon for me, but He has you now in His care, rocking and singing to you, and it is wonderful. Forever. On May 1, 2005, our family and this community lost a wonderful individual, Derrick Lutters. He was defending our country in Iraq. Derrick was a great friend and left an impression on the lives of all around him. He is truly missed. Derrick left behind his family and friends to be with God. -4-30-
