The Cowgirls ran into trouble and lost to the Colby Lady Eagles, 45-32, on Tuesday and dropped to 3-2 for the season.

The Cowgirls will continue the home stand tonight at 5:30 p.m. at Max Jones Fieldhouse against another team of Lady Eagles this time from Hugoton. The Hugoton Eagles come in with a 1-5 record, and it is the first Great Western Activity League game for the Cowgirls.

The Cowgirls will play at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday at Max Jones Fieldhouse against the Lady Plainsmen of Oakley in a non-league game.

Coach Andy Scheopner was in a pickle early in the first quarter when Cowgirl leading scorer Ashley Archer got into foul trouble with three quick fouls to put her on the bench until late in the game. Archer had 5 points in the game with all coming on free throws.

"Yeah it was a tough one," Coach Scheopner said. "You can't shoot 17 percent and win many games. I know Hugoton is a very tall team with a 6'3" girl and two 6' girls so that could create some match up problems."

On the Lady Eagles side the team was playing without three seniors including two top scorers in Kayla Hockersmith and Katrina Kaus and her twin sister Katherine who sat out the game for missing practices over the holiday break. The three went on a cruise.

The Cowgirls struggled to get the ball into the basket, and the Lady Eagles press caused some early problems. The scoring was close with Archer hitting two free throws, Jennifer Rome getting a basket on a rebound and Jade Herl hitting a basket with 4 minutes left to give the Cowgirls a 6-4 lead.

Archer was called for three fouls within less than a minute to find herself on the bench with 2:38 left in the first.

Colby led 9-8 after the first quarter. Cowgirl M'Lynn Hinger tied the game at 9-9 with a free throw with 6:39 left in the half. She hit another free throw about a minute later to give the Cowgirls a 10-9 lead, and a steal and basket by Herl made it 12-9.

With the three Colby seniors benched Junior Morgan Bell and sophomore sister Lauren stepped up to score more than half of Colby's points with Morgan hitting a team high 17 and Lauren in double figures with 12. Morgan had two free throws and Lauren hit a basket to give the lead back to Colby 13-12.

Colby was leading 15-12 with about a minute left, but Herl tied the score at 15-15 with a 3-point basket. Lauren Bell had two more free throws with 24 seconds left to give Colby an 18-15 lead. Herl got tied up under the Colby basket and called time with 8.4 seconds left, but the Cowgirls were unable to score before the buzzer.

In the third quarter Colby got the ball and Morgan Bell hit a one of her three 3-point shots and hit another field goal to give Colby a 23-15 lead with six minutes left in the quarter.

The Cowgirls did not score until Rome hit with 3:24 left.

Again Morgan Bell hit one of her 3-point shots to make it 28-17 and Cowgirl Paige Phillips got a basket to make it 28-19 with 2 minutes left. Colby got one more basket to make it 30-19 after three quarters.

In the final quarter Rome hit two free throws to cut the lead to 9, 30-

21. A minute later Hinger hit a basket to make it 32-23 with 6 minutes left. The Cowgirls kept trying to get the lead below 10, but the Lady Eagles had an answer to keep the lead at double figures and Morgan Bell hit her third 3-point basket with 2:15 left to make it 39-28.

The Cowgirls had to start fouling to get the ball back and had several fouls to give to get to the bonus. In the final minutes Herl made four free throws to cut the lead to 39-32 with 1:23 left.

The Lady Eagles finally got to the bonus with 15.5 seconds left and Morgan made both free throws to make it 43-32. Lady Eagle Emilea Finley got the final Colby points on two free throws with 3 seconds left to make the final score 45-32.

Herl led the Cowgirls with 11 points with one 3-point basket 5 field goals and 4 free throws. Rome and Hinger each had 6 on 2 field goals and 2 free throws each. Archer had 5, and Berkley White and Phillips each had 2.

The Cowgirls hit 20 percent from the floor (8 of 40), 11 percent of the 3-point shots (1 of 9), and 78 percent (15 of 20) free throws. The Cowgirls hits 22.7 percent in the first half and fell down to 16.7 percent in the second half.

Colby hit 48.5 percent from the floor (16 of 23), 50 percent of the 3-point shots (3 of 6), and 58.8 percent (10 of 17) free throws. The Lady Eagles hit 46 percent in the first half and 50 percent in the second half.

Colby had 24 rebounds to 22 for Goodland.
