P.E.O. Chapter Z celebrates its centennial anniversary

P.E.O. Chapter Z celebrated its Centennial Anniversary at Sugar Hills Golf Club on Saturday, Dec. 11. Chapter president, Judi Vignery, welcomed the members of Chapter Z and guests, members of Chapter ID, Goodland and members of Chapter AX, Burlington. The chapter was also honored to welcome Julie Cahoj, Chapter AX, Atwood. Julie is an officer of Kansas State Chapter and serves as organizer this year.

Chapter Z was chartered by the Kansas State Chapter on Nov. 11, 1910. A collection of memorabilia and a power point presentation were displayed along with a program describing the accomplishments of each decade. Educational grants, loans and support have been given to many women over the centennial life of the chapter. Philanthropic and educational giving is the purpose of P.E.O. There are P.E.O. chapters worldwide including 265 chapters in Kansas.

Cottey College, a two-year liberal arts institution for girls located in Nevada, Mo., is funded and supported by the P.E.O. Sisterhood.

The menu for the brunch came from a collection of cookbooks sold by Chapter Z as fundraisers over the century. A compilation of those books into a new cookbook is being planned by the chapter. The celebration concluded with a vocal entertainment by Demi Mitchek, a ten-year old student from U.S.D. #352.

The committee members responsible for Chapter Z's Centennial Celebration were Kin Huang, Melanie Daise, Judy Hayden and Marlyn Mangus.

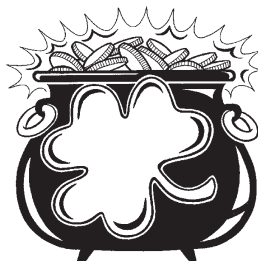

Members of the chapter who participated in a program highlighting the events of the past 100 years were Debbie Lucas (from left), Jessica Cole, Jacque Schields, Kin Huang, Phyllis Zielke and Marlyn Mangus.
