Workshops targets junior high girls

Hands-on workshops and information about careers are highlights of a one-day seminar at Emporia State University for middle-school girls interested in science and mathematics.

Registrations for "Expanding Your Horizons in Science and Mathematics" are due by Thursday, Feb. 3, for the seminar on Saturday, March 5.

"This workshop empowers young women by giving them an opportunity to meet and form personal contacts with women working in mathematics and science-related careers," said Betsy Yanik, professor in the Department of Mathematics,

Computer Science and Economics at ESU.

The day begins with registration at 7 a.m. and concludes at 2 p.m. (Mountain Time). The morning includes three career discussion sections, and the afternoon includes two hands-on workshops. When submitting their registrations, girls may indicate some session preferences.

Sessions are planned for adults, too, including hands-on workshops and discussing how to support students interested in math and science.

For more information call the (620) 341-5281.

Senior Spelling Bee to be held in Salina

The 2011 Kansas Senior Citizens Spelling Bee will be held in Salina on Friday, March 25. The Senior Spelling Bee is open to any Kansas resident age 50 or older.

The event will take place at the Webster Conference Center, located at 2601 N. Ohio in Salina, with registration at 7:30 a.m. (Mountain Time) and the first round of competition at 8:30 a.m. (Mountain Time).
