Insurance commissioner names new director

Sandy Praeger, Commissioner of Insurance, has named Tom Whalen as the Kansas Insurance Department's new producers division director.

The division is responsible for the qualification and supervision of Kansas insurance agents and agencies. It issues agent licenses, gives exams and approves continuing education hours for agents, as well as conducting background checks.

Whalen has served as a policy examiner in the department's life division since 2006. Prior to that, he was an underwriting consultant, an underwriting manager and senior underwriter, primarily with Kansas Farm Bureau Financial Services in Manhattan. He has also managed the Manhattan Chamber of Commerce and has been a retail store manager.

"We are fortunate to have a person of Tom's varied professional experience to work with Kansas agents," Commissioner Praeger said. "I look forward to working with him in providing agents and agencies with the tools they need to successfully assist Kansas consumers."

Nancy Strasburg, who has been acting division director, is returning to her position as assistant director of the division.

"We are grateful to Nancy for her valued service during this transition period," Commissioner Praeger said. "She will continue to be an important member of the licensing division staff."
