Students go to state meeting; bring awards home with them

The Goodland chapter of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America took 19 high school students and three junior high students to the organization's State Leadership Conference held on Sunday through Tuesday, April 3 to 5, at Wichita. The chapter advisor is Sarah Short.

Kansas awarded its first Parent of Year and Gennifer House received that award. Ian Bonsall was Member of the Year for District A. The junior parliamentary procedure team of Amber Smith, Amber Perdue, Alicia Benevides, Ellie House and Zachary Miller received a silver medal in the Students Taking Action with Recognition event competition.

The state meeting centered on the theme, "the Good, the Bad and the Ultimate." There were Students Taking Action with Recognition events, track sessions and speakers. Chad Hymas was a keynote and track session speaker. Also presenting were Southeast of Saline, Jason Westerheide and Jamie Carlisle at track sessions.

Hymas became a quadriplegic at 27 from an accident. He is the president of his own communications company and an Internet marketing company. In July 2003 he set a world record by wheeling a personal marathon of over 500 miles from Salt Lake City to Las Vegas. He has published a book, "Soaring to New Heights."

The Southeast of Saline chapter showed how to develop an attitude that will help make better members.

Jason Westerheide showed how to build a personal brand, promote chapter activities and using social media and word of mouth.

Jamie Carlisle told participants to go for their dreams and become motivated to become better leaders.

Students Taking Action with Recognition events can be done in groups or as individuals. The events offer individual skill development and application of learning through teams working to accomplish specific goals and competitive where performance is judged by a set of criteria. In parliamentary procedure a team develops a working knowledge of parliamentary law the the ability to conduct a business meeting.

Students were entertained Monday night by Sheltered Reality. This is a group of drummers from all over the U.S. They teach messages about making positive choices, believing in yourself, being a friend and that doing good is fun.

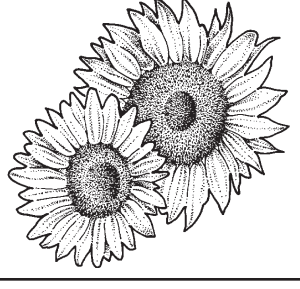

Students attending the state meeting were Paige Seeger, Katelyn Coon, Audrey Titus, Bryan Guyer, Garrett Nemechek, Jamie Gittinger, Tiffany Charron, Smith, Benevides, Perdue, Ellie House, Jarod Lake, Sloan Ruhs, Gage Owens, Ian Bonsall, Zachary Miller, Erika Fyfe, Shylar Engelhardt, Kylee Samuelson, Tanner Helton, Xavier Colby and Aaron Avelar. Accompanying them were Gennifer House, Lori Leonard, Charla Miller, Laurie Helton and Dick Short. Goodland High School graduates Julica Bonsall and Aaron Duell helped at the state meeting.
