

Thirteen students win scholarships

Thirteen Goodland High School seniors will receive Pete Henry Foundation scholarships. Sammi Goalden, Tyler Jones, Marissa Mosier, Nick Thomas and Kayler Rietcheck received a one-time $2,000 scholarship to attend a vocational/technical school or college. Kirsten Topliff will receive a one-time $1,500 scholarship. Ashley Archer, Erika Fyfe, Garth Helton, Kaitlyn Lammers, Michael Pettibone, Andrea Roeder and Andrew Shores will receive a one-time $1,000 scholarship. Pete Henry was raised on a farm near Campbell, Neb. He signed on to the Civilian Conservation Corps and learned surveying to become the head of the surveying crew which built many roads and fire lanes in the Sierra Nevada Mountains. In the 1930's he worked in the engineering department designing and constructing fighter planes for Douglas Aircraft Company. Henry only had an eighth grade education. In the 1940's he was flight engineer of the B-17, B-24 and B-29 aircraft in the Army Air Corp. In 1949 Henry rented ground south of Brewster from former neighbors in Nebraska. He learned from his neighbors, managed his money frugally, investing in good machinery and income producing assets but lived a Spartan lifestyle. Henry did all the labor on the farm until he was 88 and made all the management decisions until his death in 2002. His dream was to help local students to further their education through his foundation. Individuals from Cheyenne, Decatur, Gove, Logan, Rawlins, Sheridan, Sherman, Thomas or Wallace counties can apply for the scholarships.
