HIP IMPLANT? YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO A MONEY SETTLEMENT

DePuy Orthopaedics has voluntarily recalled its defective metal-on-metal hip implant systems. These defective implants may cause a number of potential problems in the patients who received them, including:

- Additional Surgeries
- Pain, swelling and irritation
- Metal debris: pieces of metal from the hip implant get loose and may be spread around in hip area
- Loosening: the implant fails to remain in the position where it was attached during surgery
- Fractures: broken bones occurring around the site of the implant
- Dislocation: separation of two parts of the hip replacement device that were designed to move against each other

If you or a loved one have had a DePuy hip implant, you may be entitled to compensation. Contact the Law Offices of Brian Timothy Meyers toll-free at 888-374-7528 to receive a free case evaluation. Our office has been representing injured persons since 1982.

Attorney Brian Timothy Meyers is a Washburn University School of Law graduate, Class of 1982. Attorney Peter Andreone graduated from Washburn University School of Law in 2008.
