Goodland graduate earns college honors

Michael Wade Smith of Goodland and Goodland High School graduate received the Rusty Leffel Concerned Student Award from University of Kansas at Lawrence. That award was part of the 2011 Chancellor's Student Awards and received a cash prize.

He was honored at a reception on Saturday, May 21, at the Kansas Room in the Kansas Union. He also received special recognition during the commencement ceremony on Sunday, May 22, at Memorial Stadium.

The awards committee selected the winners from throughout the university from nomination submitted by students, faculty and staff. The committee included student, faculty and staff.

The Rusty Leffel Award go to students who demonstrate a concern for furthering the ideals of the university and higher education. The award was established by a group of seniors in 1973 to honor their fellow student, Leffel.

Smith graduated with bachelor's degrees in English and American studies on Sunday, May 22, from the University of Kansas.

He was elected the Kansas University student body president last spring for this school year. Smith has lobbied for high education in Kansas and the nation's capitol and worked in involve students who had not envisioned a role for themselves in campus activities. He plans to earn a doctorate in communications and serve two years in the Teach for America program, where he will teaching middle school English in Newark, N.J.

Smith has been a past national president of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. He received considerable public speaking experience and even some opera training before going to college. He is the son of Celia Diaz Smith of Goodland and Reginald L. Smith of Naperville, Ill., and the grandson of Margarite Diaz and the late Jose Diaz of Goodland.

He established his own motivational and youth leadership training business during his freshman year at KU, Excite.Engage.Empower. He won one of the five student senate seats for freshman and has served on the board of directors for Kansas Athletics Inc., the Emily Taylor Women's Resource Center and the KU Memorial Corporation, where he was chair. Last fall, he won one of two ExCEL Awards recognizing excellence in community, education and leadership at KU. He was also named a Man of Merit by the Emily Taylor's Women's Resource Center. Smith was also a member of the University Honors Program.
