The Goodland Junior Cowboys fourth graders finished their season on Saturday losing to Colby 31-6 at Cowboy Stadium.

Assistant Coach Grady Bonsall said the bright spot was a touchdown run by Henry Cole (34) in the second quarter. Another run by Cole for an apparent touchdown was called back for a penalty.

The Junior Cowboys were down 18-6 at halftime after giving up a score late in the quarter. Colby scored twice in the second half for the win.

Bonsall said the team was a mixture of third and fourth graders, and despite losing 0-6 for the season he said the boys never let it get them down.

Coaches for the fourth grade were Justin Stasser head coach and defense, Bonsall offense and Harvey DeLaRosa assistant coach.
