

Hoping to win contest

A student at Cris Wilson's Joyful Noise Preschool worked on her coloring contest entry for Goodland's Got Talent which will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Saturday at the Goodland High School Auditorium. There are three age groups in the coloring contest the preschool and kindergarten; first and second; third, fourth and fifth.

Goodland's Got Talent includes a talent show, an art contest and an art auction. The event raises money for a scholarship established in the memory of Brianna Linin, who died in 2005 of a brain tumor. This is the fifth year for the event. The scholarship will start with the 2017 graduates of Goodland High School.

The coloring contest winners wins $50 for the teacher of the winning entry for art supplies. The Total Look Salon provides the awards.
