

Goodland artists exhibit work in Colby

Colby had their second art walk on Friday. Two Goodland artists Roxie Yonkey (her work below) and Bonnie Stasser had works shown. A first time participant was the ChewBaru, (above), an art car owned by Rex W. Rosenberg of Great Bend. Rosenberg took a hail damaged 1995 Subaru in 2005 and started turning it into a work of art. An artist (bottom left) painted as people strolled by. There were 22 stops on their art walk including Colby High School, Colby Community Junior College and business up and down Franklin Avenue.
