said O'Neal.

O'Neal's comments refer to legal battles that Hildyard became embroiled in against Citizens Medical Center in 2002. The hospital suspended his privileges after receiving complaints about his behavior in front of patients.

The court ordered he be allowed a full peer review hearing under hospital bylaws. The peer reviewers ordered Hildyard to make an agreement in writing to cooperate with the staff to "ensure delivery of quality patient care," and to attend a Professional Boundaries program, but he appealed their decision. After an Appellate Review Committee decided against him, he filed another lawsuit against the hospital alleging breach of contract and violation of antitrust laws.

In November 2010, the District Court ruled in favor of Citizens Medical Center. Hildyard appealed the decision, and the case was heard by three Appellate Court judges in Larned in May. The court has yet to issue an opinion.

He remained barred from practice at the hospital, and admitted patients at hospitals in Goodland and Oakley.

State offers extension for expired June 30 tags

The Kansas Department of Revenue, Division of Vehicles has asked law enforcement to extend a two week grace period for drivers with tags that expired on June 30.

The grace period will extend to July 13 and will apply to those with last names starting with H or I, or vehicles with 30 day temporary tags expiring June 30.

Because most Kansas counties do not have a backlog of renewals and have seen their lines return to normal, local law enforcement will use their professional discretion in applying the grace period in their counties.

Friday, the state system experienced a widespread slowdown where counties were able to process some transactions but fewer than normal. The last day of any month is typically the busiest day for counties.
