

Lions to meet in Ness

District officers representing the 1500 Lions Club members throughout Western Kansas will be coming to Ness City on Saturday, July 28, to prepare for the new Lions Year of service.

Led by District Governor Sheryl Brenn of Colby, the Lion leaders will assemble at 9 a.m. (Mountain Time) at the Ness American Legion

Hall to prepare for the new year of service to local communities served by the local clubs across Western Kansas.

The International Association of Lions Clubs is the world's largest community service organization with 1.4 million members in 5,000 plus Lion Clubs in 208 countries of the world.

The 1,500 Lions of District 17-L who serve in 66 local clubs, all serve the needs of their local, hometown communities. Area Lions from clubs in nearby Ransom, Utica, Larned, WaKeeney, Dighton, as well as distant clubs from as far as Elkhart, St. Francis, Pratt, and Smith Center will be represented.
