

The cooks hard at work

Members of the Goodland Chamber of Commerce cooked the hot dogs for a free feed before the Goodland High School Homecoming Parade on Thursday night. The cooks from the left are Don Newell of S & T Communications, Steve West of Western State Bank and John Garcia of Garcia's Home Furnishings. The chamber is in the process of rebuilding. They served 350 hot dogs.

Show to be magical mix of juggling, jocularly

Award-winning juggler, dancer and physical comedian Peter Davison will perform at 2 p.m. (Mountain Time) on Sunday at the Cultural Arts Center of the Colby Community College campus. The show is part of the Western Plains Arts Association calendar.

Davison's new one-man show is a magical mix of juggling and jocularly for all ages. With original music by Jesse Manno, "Junk!" is a celebration of old stuff. In his hands discarded, seemingly unwanted objects come alive to create fantasies, memories and most of all fun.

He is a Boulder, Colo., based performer who has toured internationally as a soloist and as a member of the juggling/dance trio Airjazz. Davison is a former National Juggling Champion and winner of the Ballet Builders NYC Award for New Choreography. Admission is by season ticket or at the door, adults $20 and students kindergarten through 12 $10.
