The opening for the exhibit of the work of Elwyn Vatcher at the Carnegie Arts Center, 120 W. 12th, was held Sunday. His works are in the Impressionist style.

Dr. David Younger played some of Telleman's works on the viola. Vatcher was at the opening painting to music.

Elwyn and his wife, Rosalee, moved to Goodland in the fall of 1989.

Since moving to Goodland he has exhibited art at the former Grind and Gallery coffeehouse and gallery, won numerous Grand Champions at the Northwest Kansas District Free Fair. He also won a People's Choice award of the Old Town Carousel stained glass horse in Burlington.

He has had a water color displayed in the office of Kansas Rep. Crumbaker during his legislative session. He has painted artwork during Goodland's Got Talent.

Vatcher was one of the main artist for the mural on the side of the Goodland Churches Thrift Shop at 10th and Main.

Recently he created a stained glass window for the Ennis-Handy

House. It will be featured during the citywide open house on Saturday, Dec. 15, honoring "The Way We Worked" exhibit at the High Plains Museum.

Born in Exeter and raised in Hampton Falls, N.H., he became inspired by art as a boy, while working on a dairy farm. During breaks, he would enjoy the farmer's wife's pie and ice cream while watching her paint. During high school he won several awards, including a state competition which sent him to nationals where he won honorable mention. After serving time in the U.S. Marine Corp, he attended the Art Institute of Boston and received an Associate of Fine Arts Degree.

Currently he owns his own studio, Elwyn Road Studio, and exhibits his art with the Blackbird Studio and Gallery on Main. This is his third exhibit at the Carnegie Arts Center.

The hours at the arts center are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Tuesday through Saturday, 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday and 1 to 6 p.m. on Monday. For information call (785) 890-6442.

Service helps people pick Medicare plans

Medicare open enrollment begins Monday, Oct. 15 and continues until Friday, Dec. 7, 2012. During this period everyone on Medicare can compare prescription plans, view their current plan, changes to their current plan in 2013 or change to a different plan. There are 30 plans for 2013.

The certified SHICK (senior health insurance counselors of Kansas) counselors Carol Guyer and Sherryl Ketter are trained to assist people. They have received extensive training in Medicare from the Northwest Area Agency on Aging and Kansas Department of Aging, attend 12 hours of continuing education yearly and receive online update throughout the year.

They will be at the Goodland Library two days a week during the enrollment dates. Appointments may be made by calling (785) 890-5908, (785) 399-2407 or (785) 821-1626.

There are also Medicare Advantage Plans, which some people like. They have lower premiums, including payment of deductibles, but have co-pays on doctors visit, outpatient and hospital visits. There are five of these plans.

People can also go to Medicare.gov to view plans and changes.
