obituaries

Raymond Charles Duell

Raymond Charles Duell, 87, Flagler, Colo., farmer formerly of Goodland, died Friday, Oct. 5, 2012, at his home near Flagler.

He was born Aug. 2, 1925, to Charles Cleveland Duell and Laura Mae Thompson Duell at the family farm in Cheyenne County about halfway between Goodland and St. Francis.

Mr. Duell completed the first eight grades of school in a one-room schoolhouse near the family farm. He completed his freshman year at Ruleton while staying with his older sibling who taught school there. He completed his sophomore and junior year at Edson, where Lowell had a teaching job. He had earned enough credit to graduate early and helped his father on the family farm in the fall of 1942. In the spring of 1943 he graduated from Goodland High School and then attended Kansas State University in the fall where he studied engineering for one semester before returning to Goodland. He farmed with his father and worked as a mechanic at White Implement Dealership in Goodland. In early 1945 he was drafted into the U.S. Navy and served aboard LST 172, which embarked from San Francisco, Calif., and served in the Pacific theater. On July 6, 1946, he was honorably discharged and returned to Goodland.

He used the telephone a lot in his trucking, grass seeding, terracing and farming ventures and was very well known to the switchboard ladies at Mountain Bell regional office in Limon. He was very persistent in getting one operator, Ethel Burns, to go out with him. She was the widowed mother of Janice, Paul and Stan.

On Dec. 31, 1961, he and Ethel Burns were married in a private ceremony at the Lutheran Church in Genoa, Colo. When school ended for the summer the family moved to Flagler.

Mr. Duell continued to farm all his life.

Preceding him in death were his parents; a brother, Lowell Duell and his wife Bertha; and a grandson, Kevin Burns.

Survivors include his wife of 50 years of the home; a sister, Margaret Christiansen of Lodi, Calif.; a brother, Ralph (Wava) Duell of Goodland; three sons, Paul (Anita) Burns, Stan (Willie) Burns and Charles (Nancy) Duell, all of Flagler; a daughter, Jan (Joe) Layton of Flagler; eight grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Services were at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 10, 2012, at the First Congregational Church, 416 Navajo Avenue, Flagler, Colo. Burial will be at the Flagler Cemetery, 6784 County Road U, Flagler, Colo.

Visitation was from 6 to 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 9, 2012, at the church.

Memorials may be sent to Flagler Ambulance Fund, Box 101, Flagler, Colo. 80828.

Love Funeral Home, 225 F Avenue, Limon, Colo. handled the arrangements.

He only takes the best

God saw she was getting tired, and a cure was not to be. So He put his arms around her, and whispered, "Come with Me."

With tear-filled eyes we watched her, suffer and fade away. Although we loved her deeply, We could not make her stay.

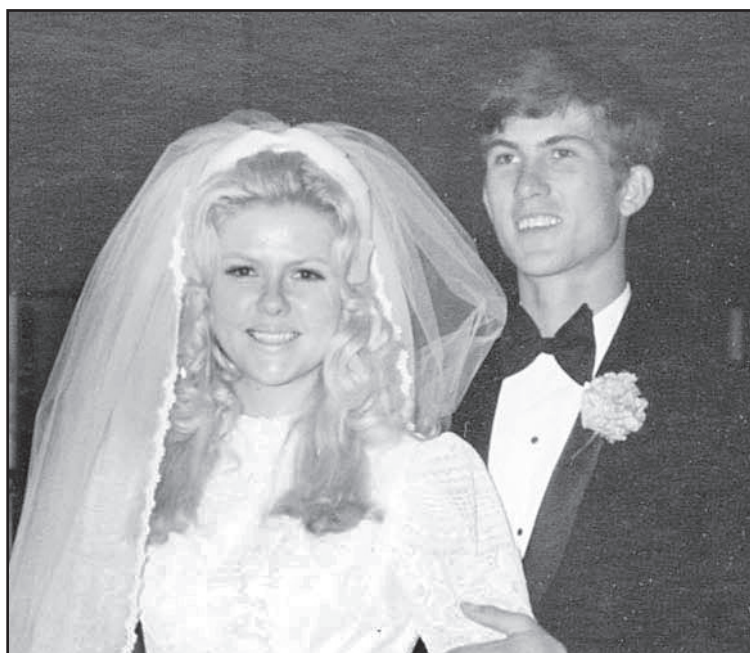

A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands put to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

Love you & Miss you very much.
