

Brooke and Levi Wassemiller

Couple wed in museum

Levi Wassemiller and Brooke Chartier, both of Goodland, were married in a double ring ceremony with a sand ceremony unity at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 25, 2012, at the Old Town Museum under the gazebo in Burlington. The bride's father, Jeff Chartier, escorted the bride down the aisle. The Rev. Linda Wells officiated and LaVoine "Smitty" Smith played his guitar and sang love songs as the wedding party walked down the aisle.

The bride wore a white organza tiered A-line dress with a beaded floral bodice and a chapel train and the veil had a tiera and a cathedral length veil. Something blue was her garter, something new was her silver wedding shoes and something borrowed was a handkerchief carried by her grandmother Maisie Chartier at her wedding. The flowers in the bouquets, corsages and boutineers included orange lilies and yellow lilies and were made by Sherri Keith.

The groom wore a black tuxedo with a vest and tie in real tree camouflage.

The bride's mother and maid of honor Dixie Chartier wore a long satin black dress. The bride's sisters, Jesi Holmes and Sara Chacon, were the bridesmaids and they wore short pleated tangerine orange dresses. The flower hairbows and headband were made by the bride's sister, Jesi Holmes.

The parents of the groom Roy and Deb Wassemiller walked down the aisle with the daughter of the bride groom, Kaisley Wassemiller, as the flower girl. Deb Wassemiller wore a long tangerine orange satin dress and Roy Wassemiller wore a black tuxedo with a vest and tie in tangerine orange.

The best man was Kenton Keigh and the groomsman was Andy Phillips. They wore black tuxedos with a vest and tie in tangerine orange.

Bells and carousel tokens were handed out to the wedding guests. The new bride and group rang the bell together in the old church at the Old Town Museum. Then everyone went to the Kit Carson County Carousel to take a ride.

The wedding cake was made by Shelly Showalter and was a white cake with white frosting decorated with fall leaves and orange tiger lilies made of sugar. The cake was served by Amber Wassemiller and Ivy Wendt, sisters of the groom.

The reception was held at The Route Steakhouse in Burlington. Food served at the dinner was ham, beef, steamed vegetables, mashed potatoes and gravy, salad and a roll.

The dance was started with the groom's parents leading the wedding party and the guests in the Grand March. The DJ at the wedding was the groom's cousin Christopher Wassemiller.

Special guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmother Maisie Chartier of Laird, Colo., and Wanda Williams of Eckley, Colo., and the groom's grandmother Lucielle Fenner of Goodland. Other special guests were the bride's great aunt Shirley Trembly and cousins Grant and Wayne Trembly from Globe, Ariz.

The couple will live in Goodland where he works as an auto technician at Finley Motors and she is a loan support officer at the First National Bank in Goodland.

sunflower 4-h

The regular monthly meeting of the Sunflower 4-H club was held at Edwards Hall on Saturday, Oct. 15. Acting President Christopher Berls called the meeting to order and acting Vice President Ashley Anderson led the club in the flag salute and 4-H pledge. Roll call of "What is your favorite color?" was answered by 17 members, 10 parents and one leader. Mason Berls led the club in singing "Bingo."

After a short business meeting, acting President Christopher Berls handed the gavel over to acting Vice President Anderson for the program. Christopher Berls gave a project talk on the aquarium project. Shelby Arnold read a poem called "The Circus" and Anderson played a piano solo called "Changing Moods."

After the program acting President Christopher Berls declared a short recess for recreation. Ryan Berls led the club in playing "Eye-ball Relay." Refreshments were served by Makayla Fitzgibbons. The next meeting will be on Monday, Nov. 19.
